Dear Sir:

Thank you very much for your letter of April 28th, discussing Loyalist data. It is true that descendants of Loyalists, seem to find a great deal of pleasure or enjoyment in climbing up and down their family tree, or even that of their neighbours. This must be a direct inheritance of the old saying that "misery likes company", and probably the inter-marriage that took place in those early days. I know, as far as I am concerned, I am a blood relation to a great number of the U.E. Loyalists in the Bay of Quinte area, remote and otherwise.

By a certain amount of correspondence in connection with my own family and its inter-marriages, I have spanned great gaps of time, since those relations with whom I have corresponded, have been in touch with my own branch. The degree of relationship has been fairly close, but the contact had absolutely been lost in the passage of time.

I am sure your trip to Albany this summer will bear fruit, and I hope that you will have my name in mind when you are going through their records. I wish that I had the opportunity of checking some of the books that Riker wrote on early Harlem families, inasmuch as most of those in the U.E. Loyalist group seem to hook up with the old and early Amsterdam settlers. In my case Lesueur and Lozier are two names that go right back to that genealogical write-up which he made.

As far as Losee's are concerned, the descendants that I have in mind were probably from Joseph, and the one that I believe would fill in the gap in my research, would be the Mrs. Andrews who probably married Joseph Losee. If you should run across the address of the Losee you mentioned as living in Ottawa, I would appreciate it very much, also that of the Randall who wrote to you, as my correspondent Mrs. F. Livesay, of Clarkson, is very much interested in this contact, which was established with you at that time.

I believe that I know the Zabriskie who is a professional genealogist, inasmuch as I have corresponded with one by that name, living in Washington, D.C. I have a copy of the claim of John German of Fort Edward, taken from the Ontario Government publications on that subject. He declares himself to be a German, but in my opinion he is a French Huguenot and the name is probably Germaine. I have the book you describe as being published by Rolph & Clark, on "Pioneer Life on the Bay of Quinte". Would be glad of your notes on the Reynolds family living in Portland township, if you run across them.

Mr. Burleigh (Cont'd.)
Bath.

Should you be in conversation with anybody in Bath, who remembers Henry Fairfield and his wife Elizabeth Losee, it may be that you can pick up the thread for me, in connection with the Andrews family that I am tracing. It has been my experience that those of us who are interested in this form of let us say 'sport', do dig up and uncover the most weird and impossible things in the way of connections and missing links.

I would be very glad to hear from you again. Thank you very much for your kindness in replying and the detail which you have given.

Cordially yours,

D.A. Vallean

The Valleaues.

The Valleaues.--Peter Valteau and his sons Hildebrand and Cornelius, aged 9 and 7 years, were among the first pioneer company. Peter appears to have settled somewhere south of Hay Bay, but no one now can tell just where. He and his son Hildebrand moved to Sixth Town (Sophiasburg) before 1800, and settled on the High Shore, a few miles east of Picton, where both lived and died. They lie buried in the old Conger church burying ground. Mr. A. S. Valteau, now Collector of Customs at Deseronto, is a descendant of Hildebrand, and there are a large number of the family in Prince Edward. Peter was township treasurer of Sophiasburg in 1800. Cornelius Valteau, the other son, drew land north of Hay Bay, second lot to the eastern boundary, where he lived and died. He reared a large family and there are now a large number of descendants, but none of the name are now in the township. Judge Cornelius Valteau Price, now of Kingston, is a grandson. A number of the family name reside in Richmond township and also a number in Ameliasburg, Prince Edward County, and in other sections of the Province. They were Methodists.

Dear Mrs Thompson

I received a phone call about a month ago from Mr. Gilbert Tinney of 2421 Main St., Buffalo, N.Y., requesting information about the marriage record (date?) of his great-great grandparents. Mary Garratt, daughter of Isaac Garratt of Wellington, and Michael Tinney (about 1825)

The couple apparently separated after eight or so children were born. One of their children, Isaac Tinney, was raised by his grand-parents, Mr. & Mrs. Isaac Garratt of Wellington until he was 14, when he joined his father in the States.

Mr. Gilbert Tinney says that Michael Tinney died ~~also~~ in 1852 in the States, and Mary Garratt Tinney (his wife) died in Wellington in 1874.

He is wondering whether we can find the date and place of their marriage, and the circumstances leading to their separation. It doesn't sound like a very hopeful case, but do you have any information?

I am writing to him to say I have none, but that you will be in touch with him.

Sincerely,

Pat Taylor

Dear Mr. Taylor,

I have recently been told that you have done research on the McMullen family, and wonder if it is possible to get a copy of your work.

My maiden name was McMullen. My Father is still living in Belleville, and we are wondering if we can trace a relationship with the former Pictou family.

Is the George Washington McMullen referred to in the book of 'The County' buried in Pictou Cemetery? Do you know where the Rev. Daniel McMullen is buried, and whether he had a son or a brother by the name of Alexander?

Possibly the fact that my Grandfather's name also was George Washington McMullen has made me more interested in the Pictou family than I otherwise would have been.

Hoping to hear from you, I am

Yours truly,
(Mrs.) Elda Portt

Dear Dr. Bursleigh

I have heard through Mr. Chard of the United Empire Loyalist Association that you might have some information on the Valteau Family of the Picton area. I would be interested to know anything about the early settlement of the family in Canada but, I would in particular be interested in anything you have on the family from Peter Valteau back (his ancestors and where they came from in the U.S. and France). I would also be interested in any other sources that would be valuable for me to look into.

Thanking you in advance

Dear Sir,

I am writing to find out if you can direct me to any source material on my family. I am a descendant of Peter Valteau a 1784 U. E. L. of the Bay of Quinte area. I would be in particular interested in any information on the family prior to Peter. From one source (The Trail of The Hugenots--G. E. Keaman) I found that the family is connected to an Isaac Valteau who came from Isle de Re France to New York. I would be interested in anything you can supply, or any place you can suggest that I write to.

Thank you.

are no longer serious problems. It is also obvious that the life span itself has been dramatically lengthened and that we now have to cope with health problems uncovered by the added years that medical science has given the average citizen.

"Tied in with this medical progress, are the striking advances which we

Former Co. Residents Honored On Occasion Of Golden Wedding

Pictou Gazette Oct 16 1959

Wainwright, Alta., Star-Chronicle

Bouquets of beautiful gladioli from their own garden and arrangements of yellow and bronze baby 'mums, gifts of friends, graced the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Valteau on Thursday, September 17, when they received their many friends and relatives on the occasion of their golden wedding day. Many beautiful cards and lovely gifts of which the couple were recipients, also added to the attractiveness of the home.

In charge of the guest book during the afternoon were Mrs. A. Morrison and Mrs. W. A. Kinghorn, while Mrs. H. Pfluger and Mrs. F. Perkin shared the honor during the evening hours.

To honor their father and mother, the family held a reception at the supper hour in the United Church Hall. A short program of appropriate songs and readings were rendered by the grandchildren and others. Mr. Stanley Valteau, who acted as master of ceremonies, gave a warmhearted yet humorous portrayal of his parents rather eventful life. Stanley took for his theme "The Twentieth Century". Present at the supper were Rev. and Mrs. A. A. Lewis. Rev. Lewis in a few well chosen words, expressed the feelings of those present when he congratulated the couple on fifty years of married life and wished them many more years of happiness. In his remarks he referred to Psalm 1, especially noting the words: "Blessed is the man . . . whose delight is in the law of the Lord".

Descendents of U.E. Loyalists, Mr. and Mrs. Valteau were both born near Pictou, Ontario, where they lived until after they were married in 1909. They farmed there until 1911, when they moved to Bawlf, Alberta. After a year there they went to Lanigan, Sask., also spending a summer in Moose Jaw before returning to Ontario in the fall of 1912. In 1917 they were called there again and they came to a farm south of Greenshields, where they resided until 1947, when they moved to their present home in Wainwright.

Here for the celebrations was a friend of early farming days, Mr. Chris Anderson of Saginaw, Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. Valteau have two sons, Stanley and Glenn at Wainwright; one daughter, Mrs. Vern Lindberg (Reta) of Camrose; fourteen grandchildren and three great grandchildren. All of these were present for the day with the exception of their granddaughter Marian (Mrs. Henry Schalm) of Squamish, B.C.

Besides all these are a host of friends who also fondly choose to call this honored couple, Grandpa and Grandma.

In this issue Moore's Grocery and Demille's Meat Market of Bloomfield have an advertisement featuring week-end specials. This indicates a new departure in which they have left the Red & White affiliation, and are now carrying on as independent merchants.

Arthur Moore has been in business in Bloomfield for 28 years and Stephen Demille has been carrying on a meat business for the past 7 years.

Marmora V Held On Cl Murdering

A 35-year-old Marmora mother of five children was formally charged with murder Sunday in the death of her husband, found shot to death in the kitchen of their home Saturday night.

Police said that John E. Herman, mechanic at strike-bound Marmora-ton Mines at Marmora, was found dead on the kitchen floor of his home with a .22 calibre bullet through his heart. Charged with murder in the shooting is his wife, Dorothy Joan, whom he married in England 16 years ago.

The couple have five children ranging from one to 15 years.

All five of the Herman children were in bed when the shot which ended their father's life rang out downstairs.

Dear Friend:-

Enclosed you will find the death notice of our mutual friend Val. I feel quite lonesome over the loss as he was the only Genealogical contact I had here in Oshawa. He certainly gave me much good advice in the art of ancestor-hunting and many valuable contacts for information. Well-we must all go sometime (whether we are ready spiritually or not) and leave someone else to put that last date in the family record.

How are things with you? I am still interested, spasmodically, in research and have made a few new contacts. The best news I am able to forward to you is that the Mormon Church has established a Genealogical Exchange in Toronto and issue Bulletins of queries and records. I am enclosing a little data for you on your family which may be of some use, I hope.

Write when the spirit moves you, as the Quaker settlers would say.

As ever, Genealogically yours,

C. G. Crouse.

Prince Edward Pioneers

The Vallean Family

by Wesley K. Turner

In this present day of hurrying and hurrying very little attention or thought is given to the Old Pioneers of the Bay of Quinte District, and from whom so many families are descended.

We do not realize, perhaps, how much our forebears suffered to settle this fertile district, to clear the lands, to till the soil, and to make a home on what was then a virgin forest.

Who were these people? Whence did they come? Why did they venture into the then unknown wilderness of what was afterwards known as Canada?

We all know, in an offhand way, that they were United Empire Loyalists; but we do not often know much else about them.

In order, therefore, to show how interesting the history of some of those pioneer families is, we begin by giving a short historical and genealogical sketch of the Vallean family, descendants of whom are numerous and well known in Prince Edward, and in other parts of Canada and the United States.

Anthony Vallean (pronounced Va'llo) is the first member of the Vallean family of whom anything is known. He was a Huguenot, and an inhabitant of Geneva, Switzerland. In 1503 we find him distributing Huguenot literature in the provinces of France, doubtless with the object of disseminating the great truths of the Bible, and thereby teaching the way of the Lord more perfectly.

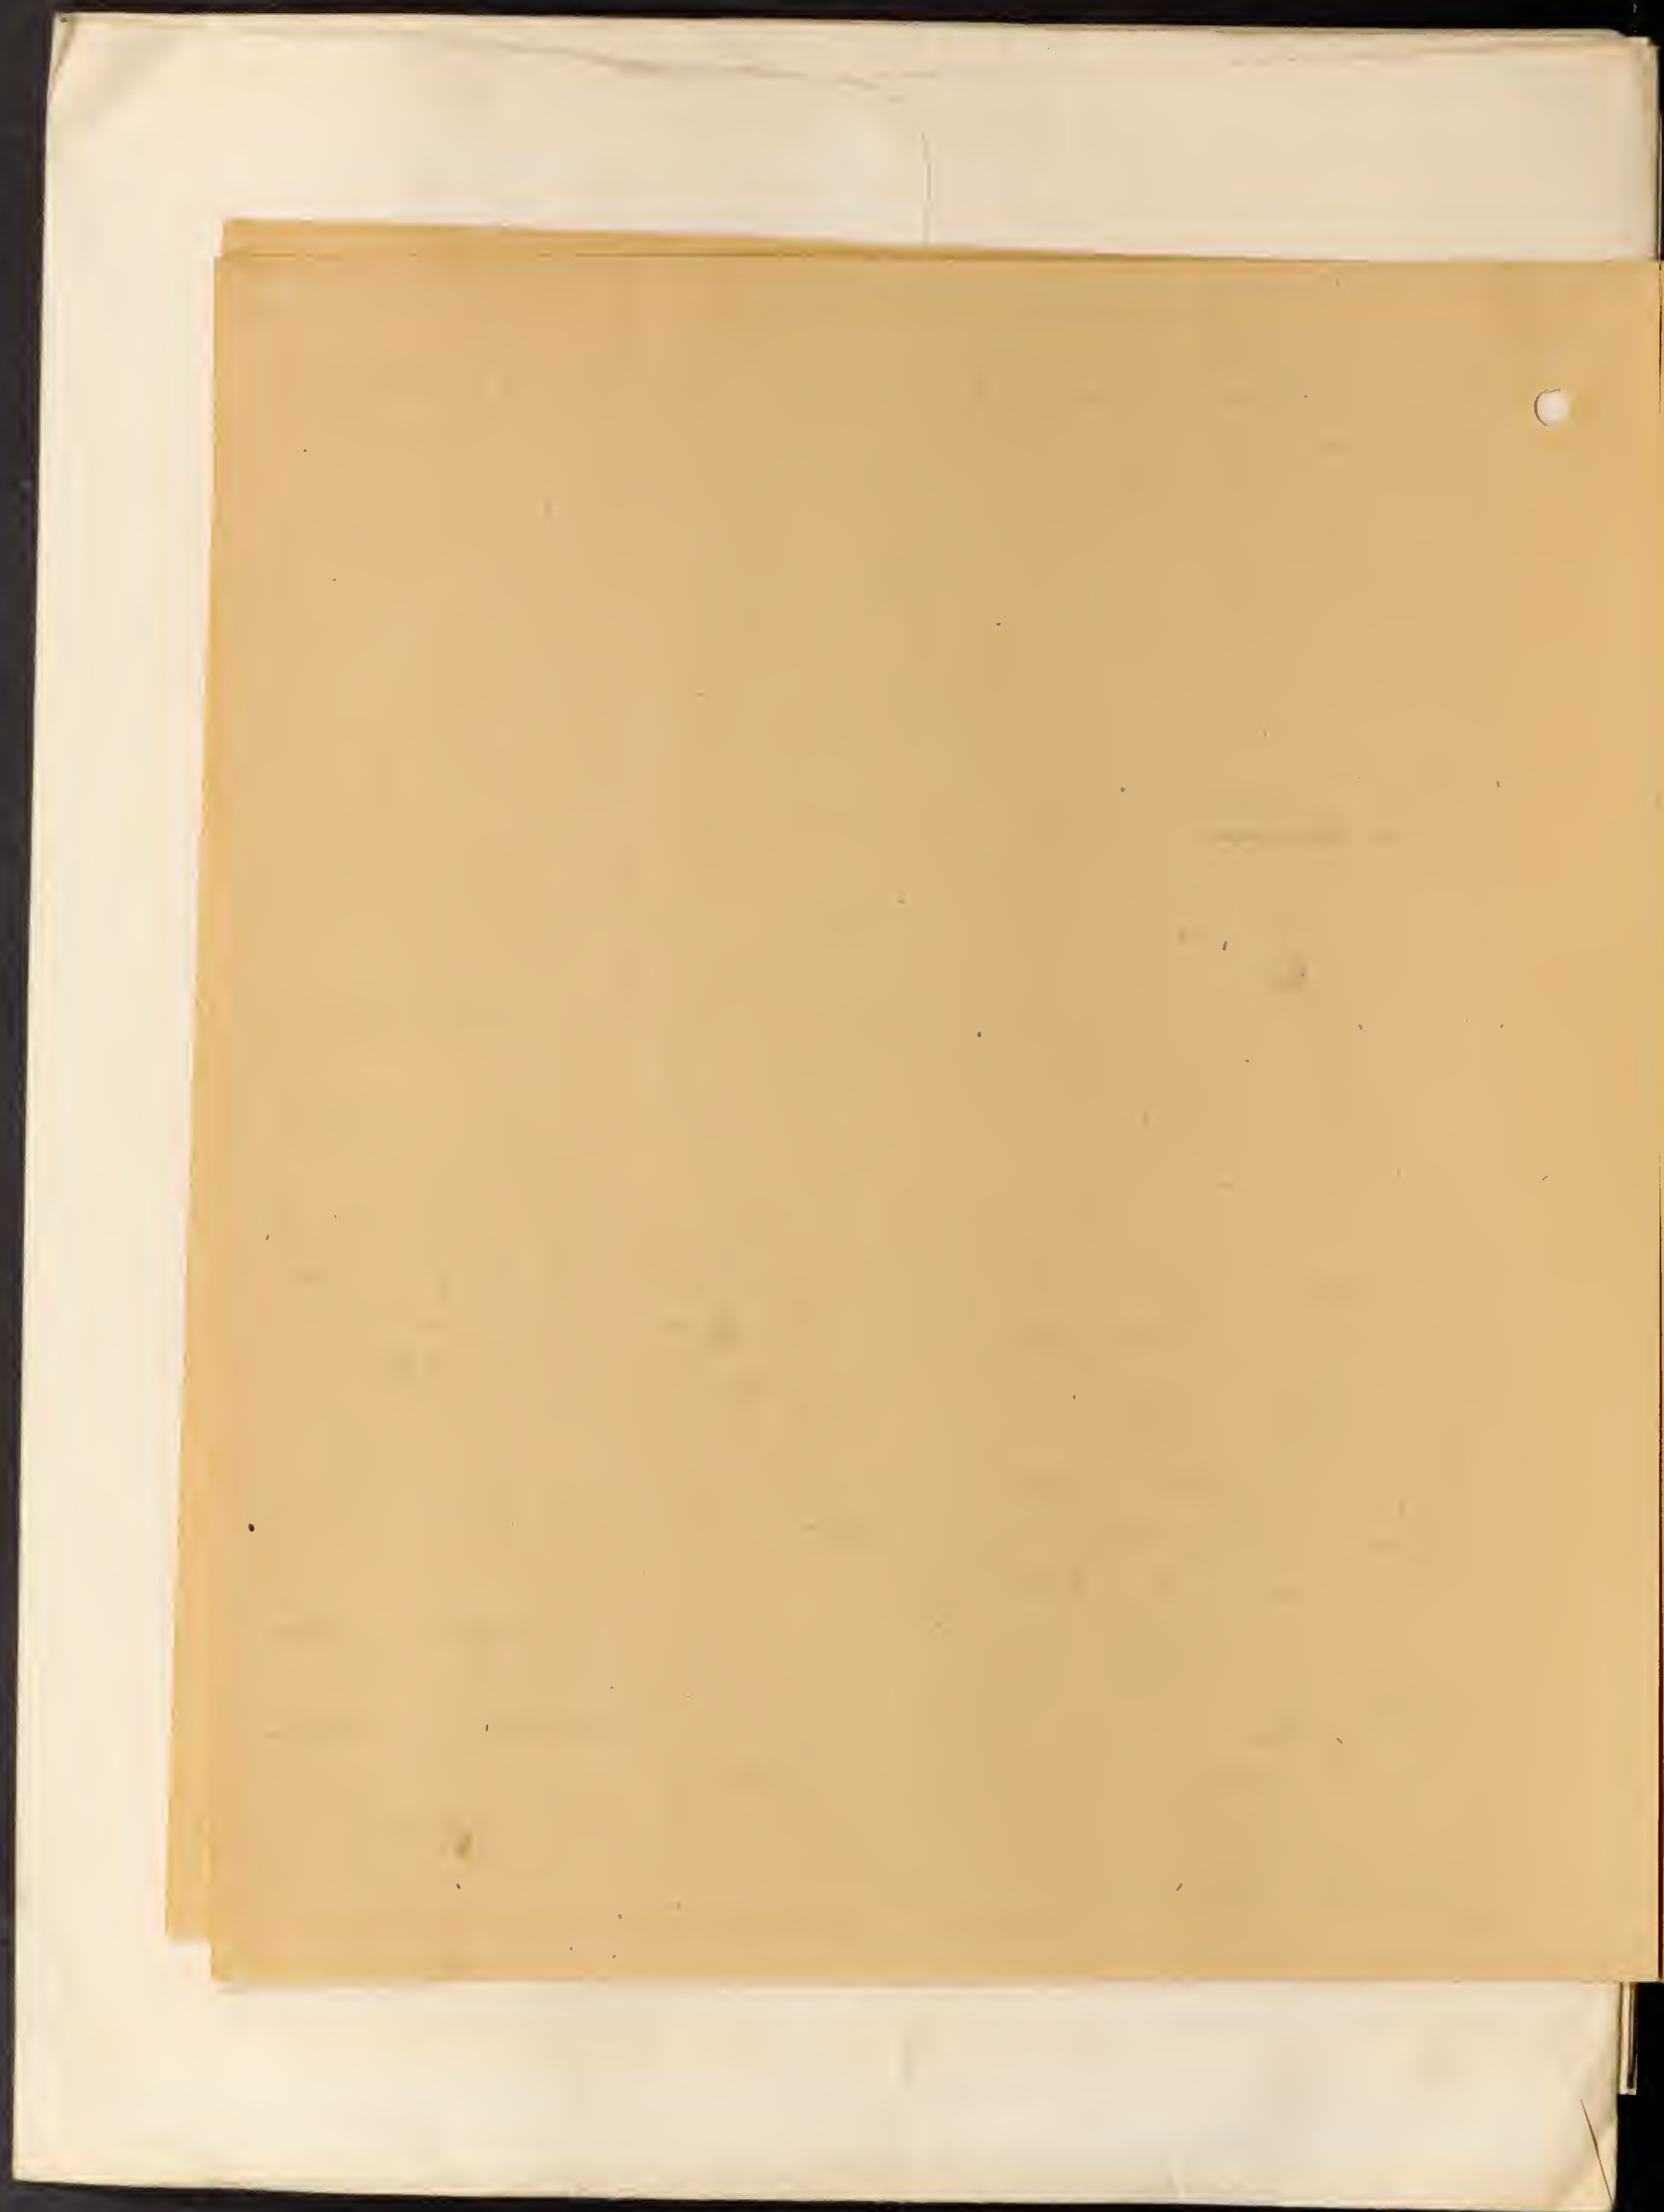

No other mention of the Valleans is found, until one Isaiah Vallean, the great-great grandfather of Lieut. Peter Vallean, the U. E. Loyalist and founder of the Vallean family in Canada, and who will be referred to later on. He settled on the Isle de Re, an island on the West coast of France. He was born in 1608 and became Sieur de la Pree. Following a custom and usage that is hoary with age, he also had a son named Isaiah who was born in 1638. He became a merchant at St. Martin's. He married Susanna Descard, daughter of Jean Descard, captain of the marine. Isaac ~~Descard~~ Vallean and wife, Susanna Descard, were among the religious fugitives - the French Huguenots, who left France at the Revocation of the Edict of Nantes, Oct. 18th, 1685. They were compelled to leave everything behind them, and merely escaped with their lives, their property being confiscated by the government.

It is sufficient to state here that the great conflict with their persecutors in France began in the 16th century, and continued with violence and injustice until April 13, 1598, when Henry IV. by the celebrated Edict of Nantes, granted them toleration and liberty to worship in their own way. And yet, notwithstanding the freedom thus given them, their enemies still continued to harass them, and for years brought such pressure upon the throne for their overthrow that Louis XIV. finally yielded and revoked the Edict Oct. 18, 1685.

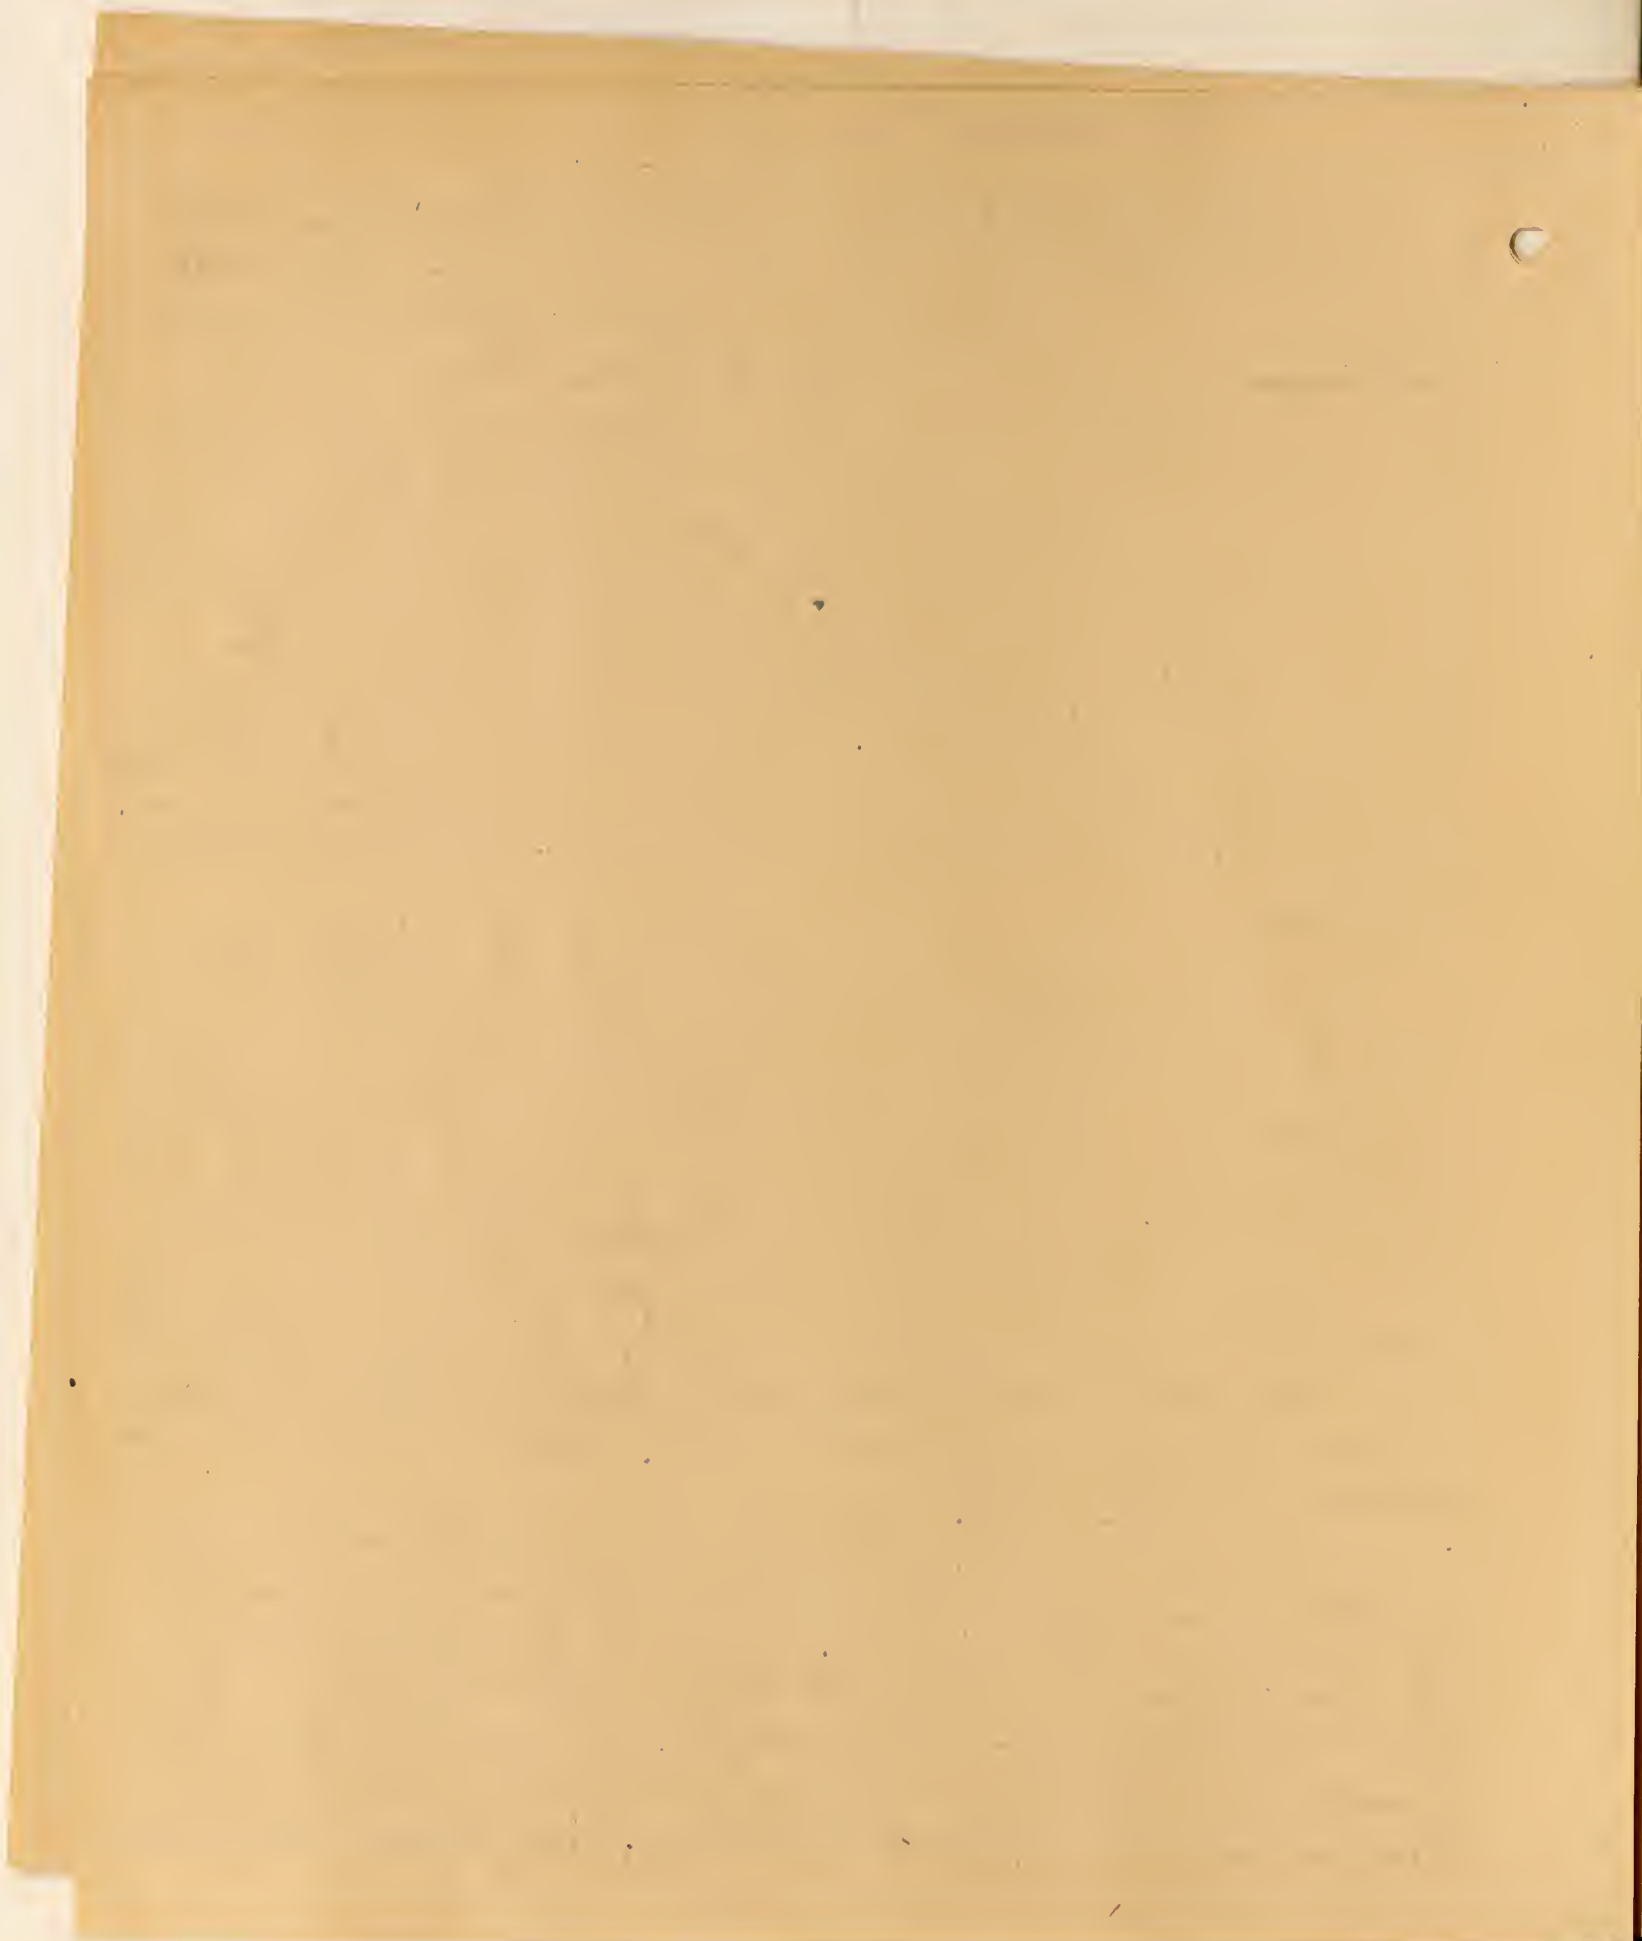

Immediately there ensued a general flight of the Huguenots in all directions. The Vallean family were among the number who escaped by night, taking with them nothing, and in the darkness, leaving forever the shores of France. Their escape was full of interest and full of romance.

It is thought that the Revocation lost to France half a million persons, amongst whom were some of the most skilful of the land. All the Protestant countries of ~~the land~~ Europe, especially America, Holland and England, received large numbers of these refugees. Their emigration to America began early before the Revocation, and the descendants of the first settlers, and those who came after them, are to be found in Massachusetts, New York, Pennsylvania, Virginia and South Carolina. Since then the churches which they established have gradually merged into other evangelical bodies, so that the Calvinistic liturgy and worship of the Huguenots is to-day represented perhaps by only one church - the Huguenot Church of Charleston, South Carolina.

The Vallean family reached New York in 1685, after a long and dreary voyage. They settled at a place which they named New Rochelle in honor of their native place in France, where they had suffered persecution and from whence they had fled. They were now near the shore of Long Island Sound and only a few miles from New York City. Here they became prominent in helping to build up the country and establish homes where they might enjoy peace and happiness. The old home which first sheltered the Vallean family is still standing, having been built in 1700, and is known as the Old Drake Homestead.

Isaiah Vallean and his wife, Susanna Descard of New Rochelle, had a son Isaiah, and he also had a son Isaiah who was born in St. Thomas, one of the West India Islands, in 1703. This Isaiah married Lea Hartz, daughter of Rayer Hartz of old Dutch extraction. Their eldest son, who was also named Isaiah, was a patriot and soldier of the Revolutionary War of 1776. He was made a prisoner of war by the British, and was confined in the Sugar House in New York City, and while there was taken sick, when he was paroled, and died soon after his release.

In distinction to this Isaiah, his second son, who was named Peter, born in Bergen County, New Jersey, in 1751, and was loyal to the British Crown. It is this Peter, a great-great grandson of the original Isaiah, who was Seigneur de la Prie in France, who established the Vallean family in the Bay of Quinte district. He married Jannetie Lazier, widow of Andrew Labrishie. And at the close of the American Revolution, after peace was declared, he and his wife and two sons, Hildebrand and Cornelius, were among the company of loyalists, who in 1783 left New Jersey to settle in what was then known as the Province of Quebec.

These loyalists were called the United Empire Loyalists, because they believed in a United Empire under the Crown of all British possessions in America. The Canadian Council in 1789 directed a list to be made of all the loyalists who adhered to or joined the Royal Standard in America before the separation in 1783, in order to put a mark of honor on them and their families and to the end that their posterity might be discriminated from the then future settlers of Canada. This adherence of Peter Vallean, and his fellow loyalists to the Crown, makes it of considerable interest to have some account of their settlement in the neighborhood of the Bay of Quinte.

On the 16th of June, 1784, the first party of United Empire Loyalists landed on the shores of Adolphustown, then called Fourth Town, with their flotilla of batteaux. They had left New York City the previous October in a number of sailing vessels, accompanied by a British war vessel, sailed around the coast of New England and Nova Scotia, and wintered in canvas tents at Sorel, a few miles east of Montreal. Leaving there with the opening of navigation in the spring, they proceeded in small boats up the St. Lawrence, dragging them by hand up the numerous rapids. They took over a month to make this heart-breaking journey of 250 miles, before they reached Adolphustown, which was till 1792 a part of the Province of Quebec.

In the Adolphustown records of 1795, among the families there mentioned, is Peter Vallean with a family of five. The last child was his daughter Mary, born in Canada.

The Vallean family is on the list of this worthy company of pioneers. It is doubtful if a more noble company ever landed on any shore. They helped to make the Bay of Quinte district what it is to-day, a land of peace and plenty, a land of sunshine and of flowers — the promised land of the Western continent.

Here they were compelled to begin life anew, and to face privations and sufferings, which only pioneers can fully know. But their privations and sufferings were turned to good account. And from the ashes of their blighted hopes and poverty sprang up a people who stand to-day among the very best in the land. A people virile, worthy, God fearing and real citizens in the land of their adoption. Their descendants have gone out into the world, and have justified the sacrifices which the old pioneers have made — sacrifices made for their children and their children's children, the noblest and the greatest sacrifice ever made in the world. Peoples of far countries are still doing what these pioneers have done, seeking new lands for an ideal, ~~for~~ for freedom and for liberty.

Lieutenant Peter Vallean (also called Petrus Vallean) lived in Adolphustown eleven years, when he permanently settled on the High Shore in Sophiasburgh, taking up a large block of land at that place. The old homestead contained some 300 acres of land. It is worthy of note that five generations of Valleans have lived in this old home.

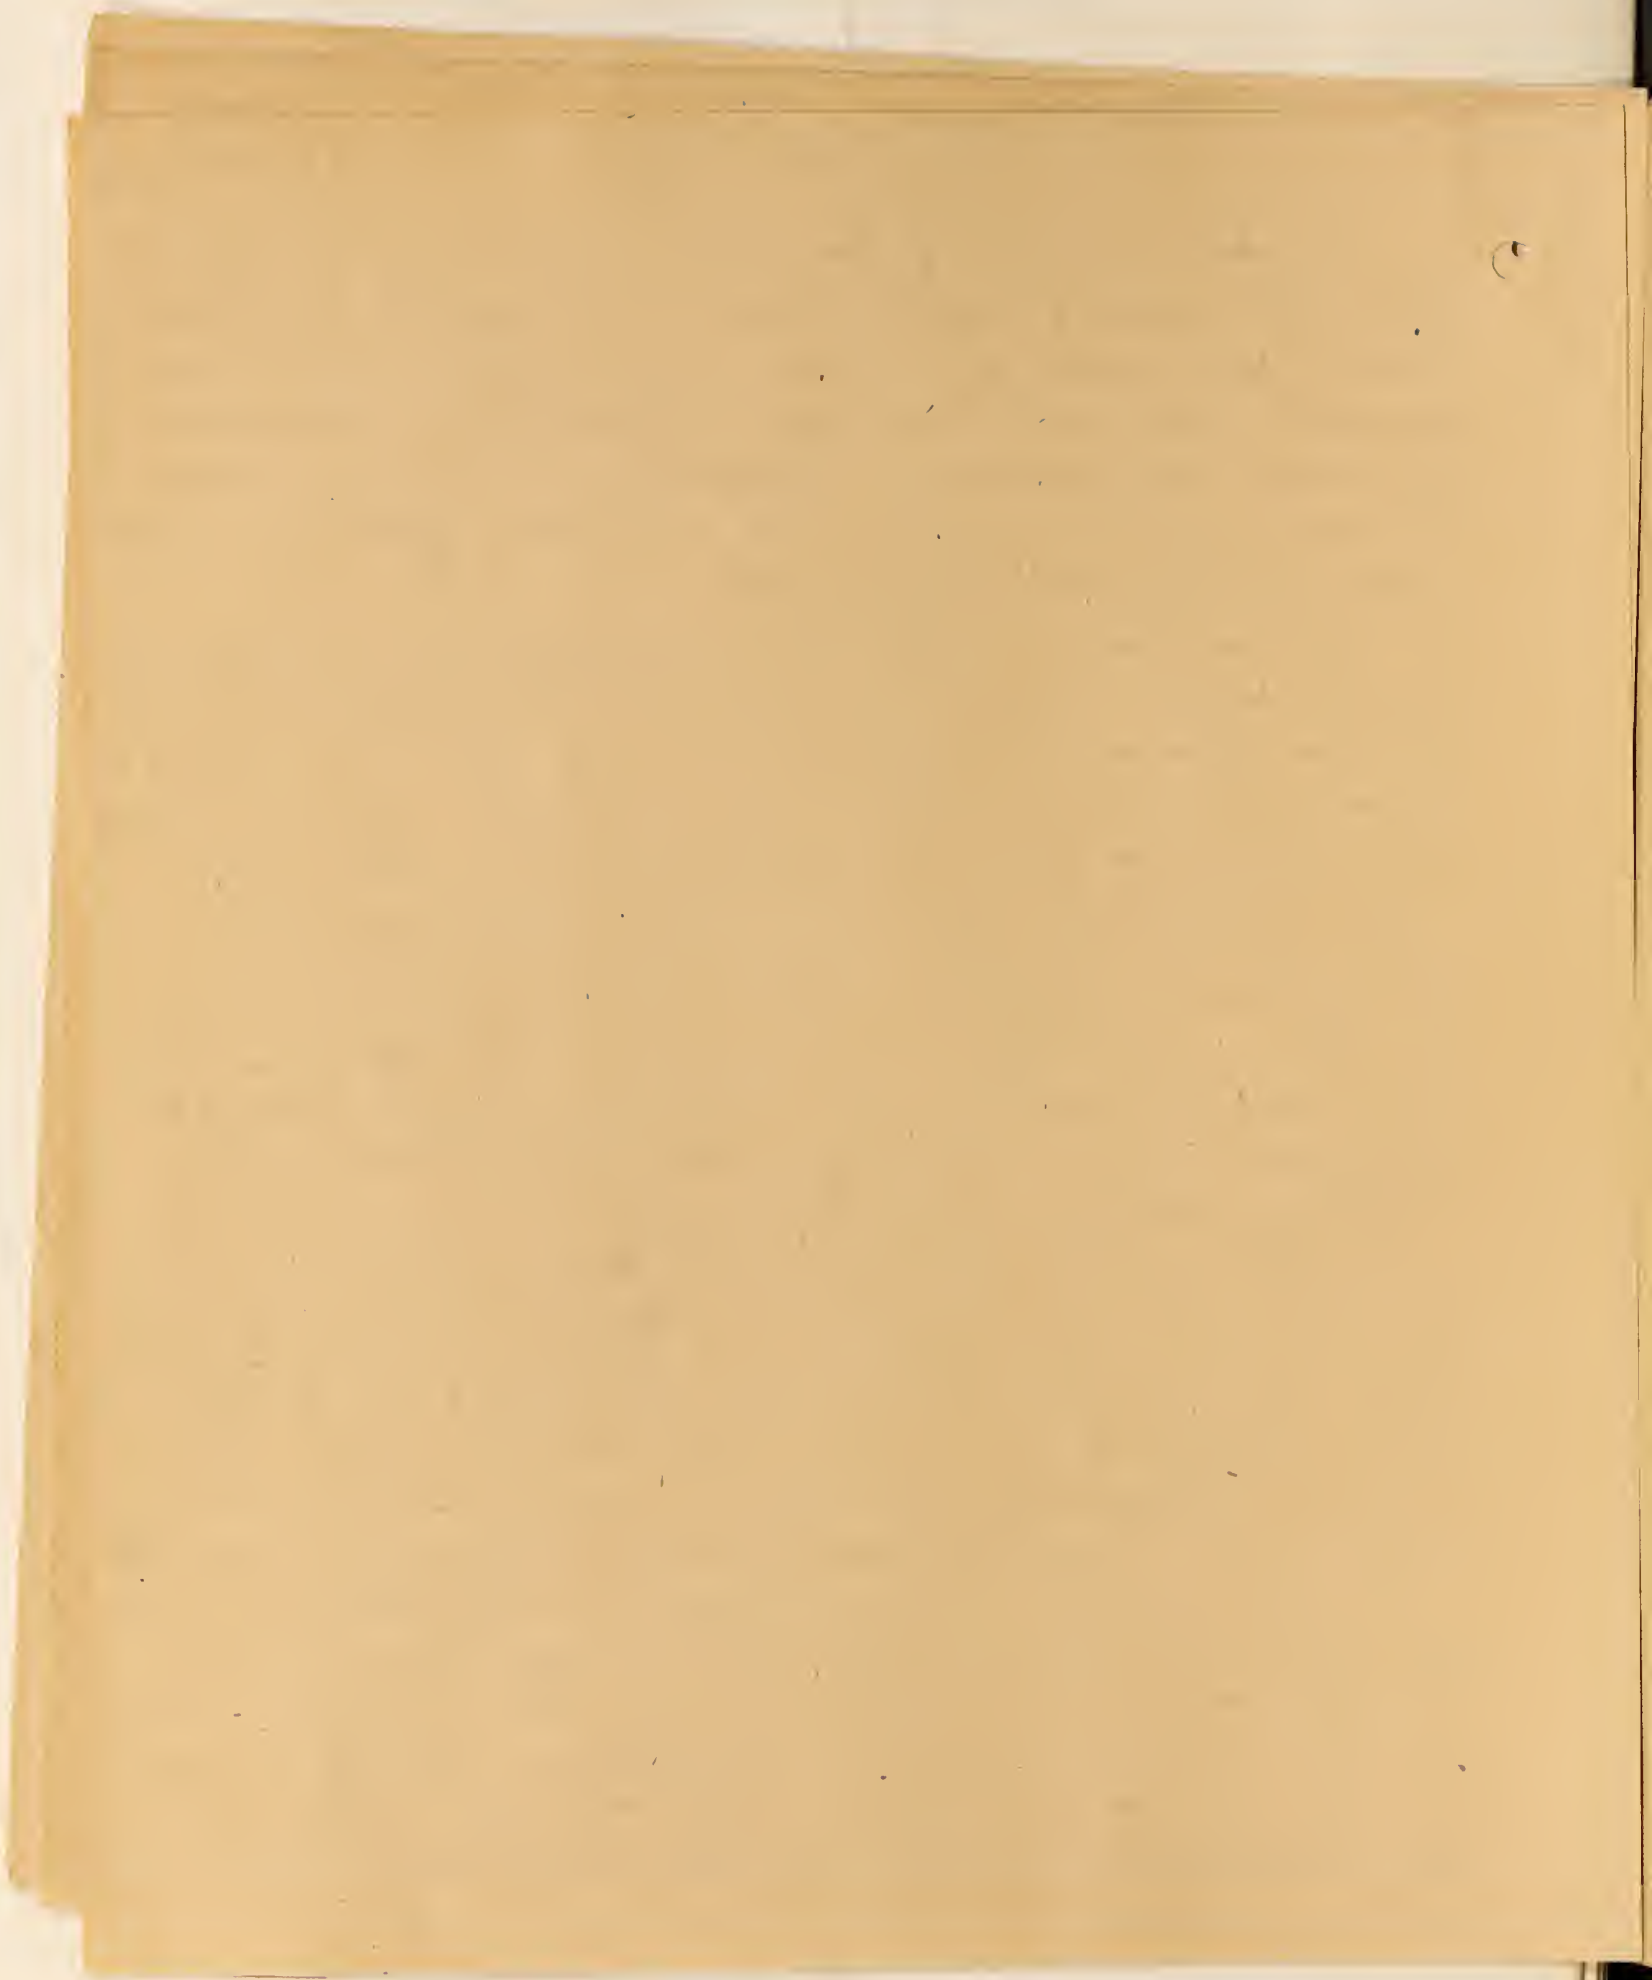

In the records of the town meetings in Adolphustown the name of Peter Vallean is frequently mentioned.
And in the records of a town meeting held in Sophiasburgh, Prince Edward county, on the 3rd of March, 1800, he is there referred to as a resident, and is appointed treasurer of the township, and is spoken of as "one of the most respectable inhabitants."

In the Upper Canada U. E. Loyalist list, inserted by order of the Honorable Executive Council, Lieutenant Peter Vallean stands as a Loyalist. He was also on the list of those who received rations of provisions with the other U. E. Loyalists from the British Government in 1786.

It is interesting here to remember what was done to compensate the Loyalists for their support and for their sacrifice in coming to Canada at that time. Each Loyalist received a grant of land, while about 3,200,000 acres were distributed among them before 1787. They were also helped with provisions and clothing by the British Government until they could provide for themselves.

Lieutenant Peter Vallean had two sons, Hildebrand and Cornelius, and one daughter Mary, who became the wife of John Benson, and with her he spent his last days, dying at the age of 94. He and his wife were buried in the old Congregational Methodist burying ground. Here too, lie at rest his son Hildebrand and family, and many other of his descendants, including his daughter Mary and her husband.

Cornelius Vallean, son of Lieutenant Peter Vallean, was seven years old when they came to Canada. He was a man remarkable for his nobility of soul and his genial disposition, and was loved and respected by all who knew him. He married Anne Rowe in 1798. He had a large and influential family numbering eight children, of whom

Peter Vallean of Hillier, was the eldest. Peter was one of Hillier's most respected and prosperous citizens — one whose word was as good as his bond. He also left behind him a large family. He died at the age of eighty years, and lies buried in the Burr cemetery, nearby the home he had built, and where he had lived for nearly sixty years.

William Vallean was the second son of Cornelius Vallean. He was a man prominent in church work, and of a genial and kindly disposition. He was one of the sweet singers of his day. It is quite a remarkable coincidence that he and his brother Peter, and father as well, each one should raise a family of eight children. William Vallean was married to Catharine German, and both lie buried in the old Methodist burying ground, Selby, Ontario, nearby their old home.

The descendants of the Vallean family are widely scattered from the Atlantic to the Pacific. They are engaged in the various pursuits and vocations in life — numbering among their ranks lawyers, ministers, judges, physicians, teachers and others, all helping in their own way to fill some important niche in the onward march of the age in which they live.

Among them we might mention the late Judge Cornelius Vallean Price of Kingston, Ont.; George Vallean, Vice-President of the American Bank Note Company, Ottawa, Ont.; William Vallean, Secretary-Treasurer of the Chartered Accountants of Ontario; J. H. Vallean, Secretary-Treasurer of the Oshawa Railway Company, Esquimaux, --- J. Vallean,

Thus briefly we have endeavored to pay tribute to a family that has helped in no small way to do their part in the building of this country - a family that had its origin in sunny France, a land of pleasant fields and quiet streams, a family with a firm faith and trust in God - a family of Huguenots, persecuted and driven from the shores of France, their fatherland, and who found refuge and peace in this great country, even in the days of its beginning; a family true to the Government which had protected and sheltered them, that too at a time when they had to incur persecutions and hardships anew.

And here by the flow of the beautiful waters of the Quinte — our beloved Hudson of Canada — these God-fearing and faithful pioneers, these dear old Hiquenots, these United Empire Loyalists, have lived and died. Let us now wreath their graves with evergreen and with flowers, and tenderly say to them: "Sleep on in peace!" You have gone! You have gone with your rude and quaint implements of toil! You have gone with the forests which once adorned this land! Gone with the poor Indian who claimed this country for his hunting ground! You have gone with the flotilla of batteaux which transported you to these shores — a country where you could live in peace and call your own. Gone, too, with the humble homes, the proud effort of your hands. And with you all is quiet now!

But you have left behind you that which will never die, that which will never perish — noble deeds, heroic deeds, memories to cherish with pride — pride that you fought life's battles so well. Memories that will extend into the ages of eternity. Peace! Peace! Hallowed peace to your memory.

Dear Victor:

I hope you can burn considering the thoughts you have sown in my mind by not "keeping it" as you warned me to do for you!

God I thought there was enough "Campbell" data to make some comment! I got into a controversy with Mrs Lyons - Fellowes descendant of Geo Ridout of Toronto re John Campbell & Gibbs - She can accept John as a brother of Archibald Sr. because the W&L statement says only one son.
I have even asked you to unravel some more of John Campbell's antecedents! especially just how he was connected to Aunt Alexander Campbell other than tradition. Surely a "hill" or "bible" can be brought to light?
• I want to hear "Martin authorities" comment on what I sent you?

24 Naturally one wonders who was the wife of Capt James Rowe? I understand a descendant of this family - I do not know how remote - lives in Newcastle, near here.

Like Whitby, Newcastle had many settlers from the East - the Wallbridges, Wap, Fosters, etc are examples.

Quoting from "Early History of Settlers" by John T. Coleman writing in Burlington Zep. - Clarke etc - he lists R. Lockens Magistrates list of 1812 Roll Call and such names show up as of that date showing that we have but lightly touched the interweaving of Colonial migrations & inter marriages.

Waterman A Spencer Cornelius Daly

v. There is no apparent "will" of Lieut Alex Campbell in Napanee or in "Osage" or "Toronto".

The James Clark family in London has some Silver from Elizabeth Campbell who married
Col. Hild. Vallan & Mrs J. Berry of Aurora has some other things but nobody has admitted having a Bible.

The Napanee "Campbell" line from the old 1st Postmaster Alexander Campbell mentioned and patented by Lawyer Herrington of Napanee does not seem to have any descendants that know anything about it.
Mrs Prun however has very proud of her original "Campbell" possession & had the Argyle tradition mentioned under Vallan in Pioneers along the B. & N.

I cannot see that Amos Campbell who descends from Archibald C & Roger of the Bath Records are at all connected with this line.

3 As for being more on Mrs Rowe - this is. at last my fine gentleman to solve. I talked to a man Rowe on the RR outside Oshawa the other night and his family come from Sussex Eng. set in Toronto near Oshawa years ago. But do not carry any Capt Rowe affiliations. He remembered some person asking him if he was related to Capt Rowe however - this person met a man on horseback coming from Bowmanville in 1890
who said he was Capt Rowe!
Hot Dog.

Now let me ask you a question
In Vol 6. C.H.S. page 133 it says dealing with Andersons of Dereents etc. In Sept 1859 his youngest daughter left him to become the wife of Henry D. Rowe a brother of Wm H Rowe and they settled on a farm belonging to the late Captain James Rowe R.N. halfway between Port Hope and Cobourg.

I understand from Mrs Lewy she set you up with plenty data on Brown - Perry - Walker origins

He ever did not see any facts to change my analysis in my and let to you - this is the 3rd. She said she had J. C. C.

work to do for Freeman at Brighton in Los Angeles Library -

Whately his lines - outside of these I have a few notes on Freeman where but very few.

However I connect with Becker,

③ Webb, Bouckley, Pearsall, Pearson, ④ Scribble, etc on which 1, 2, 3, 4, are imperfect notes covering with marriage

3. You never got me anything on Losee. It seems to be a "Smelly" one from some people's viewpoint but there are several families involved and all are not that way because one might have been. The attitude of the old front Settlers to Innkeepers was intolerant to say the least. As these people were usually Anglians there was further intolerance. I prefer the Innkeeper to the Cotton Mather type of Methodist that originated in that area. I talked to a lady the other day & she apologized for an uncle marrying a "Mary Losee" on the grounds they did not approve - I suspected a father who sold liquor!

I have data on a will by Joseph Losee registered Apr 20, 1849 Dup Ernestown leaves estate to Ellen Losee wife & asks consideration in her part to John Losee his grandchild.

In the land records Lot 20 Cone 1 Dup Ernestown Joseph Losee got it from David Williams Oct 28, 1819 & from Margaret Booth May 24, 1823 & sold variously to Adam Miller & Adam Harris & on Oct 18, 1851, Ellen Losee sold it to John Losee. (probably the grandchild)

Lot 19 Cone 1 Ernestown bought Apr 18, 1822 from John Best by Joseph Losee & portions sold to Rev R McDowell & John D. Dulmage.

In the 1855 vol 1 there is a marriage entry Joseph Losee & Eliza Ackerman Oct 27, 1807.

In my family the name Losee appears as the grandmother of David Andrews but not necessarily blood relation between Andrews & Losee - Mrs Henry Sanford nee Betty Losee was half Aunt to David Andrews.

4- Either Mrs Losee or her dau. Mrs Andrews or both married Dulmages - one of these was a widower with Six Children - But so was Betty Fairfield!

This has been the best jig saw puzzle yet!

I particularly hoped for comment on the Campbell notes. Don't think that it is just picked up from OHS vol 21, I verified m^{rs} & of it from many other sources - & some is personal research. Mrs Lyons - Fellowes being a Campbell & she says they were just as bad as the Senz says, sticks to the argument that Lieut Alex Campbell had only one son Archibald & he in turn had only Arch & Alex. She then puts Gibbs Campbell as issue of Arch Jr. But as this Arch Jr married my 9-great Aunt Mary Vallan I know there was no issue. I have a great Aunt Lundy who 140 yrs old can take affidavit to that! Her brother Cornelius Vallan of Hay Bay sold his Lot 16 - 4th Crown grant to her Husband Arch Campbell by deed Feb 23 1856.

This should mean that John Campbell of Richmond was either son of Lieut Alex Campbell or that there were two wives & 2 families.

Mrs L. J. is anxious to know who was wife of Lieut Alex. C. She thinks that her version of a Miss Small is correct but would like verification.

Can your people with Campbell ancestry give any data connecting with the Handwritten text, likely a letter or journal entry, covering the majority of the page. The text is extremely faded and illegible.

Fragment of handwritten text visible on the right edge of the page, including the letters "S", "K", "M", "t", "a", and "a".

5 Data I gave? For instance did they know of Vallan? There were enough connections to justify this being a fact. Actually Mrs Fred Berry of Aurora is living & is a granddaughter of Elizabeth Campbell wife of Col Hildebrand Vallan. She has very definite & embracing memories of all the Campbell line. Did these people know about the Davis Connection in Adolphstown. Did they claim descent from Duke of Argyle. This was a tradition but my notes modify it to another Campbell line.

Mr. Wallace Petersen son of Charlotte Vallan living in Colborne now, as a boy lived with Mrs Arch. Campbell at Hay Bay. He could be a source of information in a controversy.

I hope I am keeping you "hot" as you say - I have written Marie Lewney & will reflect her comment on Perry.

Dear Hector :

425 Simcoe St. N.

2/24/40

At last I have penetrated your professional silence!
Thanks a lot for your letter and the Hawley notes.

I am enclosing Desmarest and Benson notes as they sit in Ernestown but did not stay here might be more difficult. The Desmarest line has been written by a Proff in Haldimand N. but I lack the $5 to buy it. The Canadian part is vague so he told me.

I have the historical background Van Ruzen from a Corresp. in Rockland Ill if you want it.
By the way did the article on Melby Brant by Riddell in the O.H.S. cast any light on Johnson descendants?

I have the Osborne line also if you ever need it.

The Benson could be more detailed if needed but I only sketched it.

I have the Bagart line - the Maria Lazier 102 yrs - connection - should you want it anytime.

I note Lawyer Herrington's family, also his mother's family Morden is in "Pioneers along the Bay of" if ever needed. It is too bad he avoided the genealogical phase.

The Campbell line I imagine is from the Brockville gent rather than the one in Adolphustown - however hope it is not as I would like to get it sorted out - my great aunt Mary Valken married a Campbell (Arch) of Adolphustown Bro of the Alex in Napier and grandson of the Lieut Alex C. of Adolphustown - town clerk etc.

By the way have you got the Peterson line marked out - I would be interested in this.

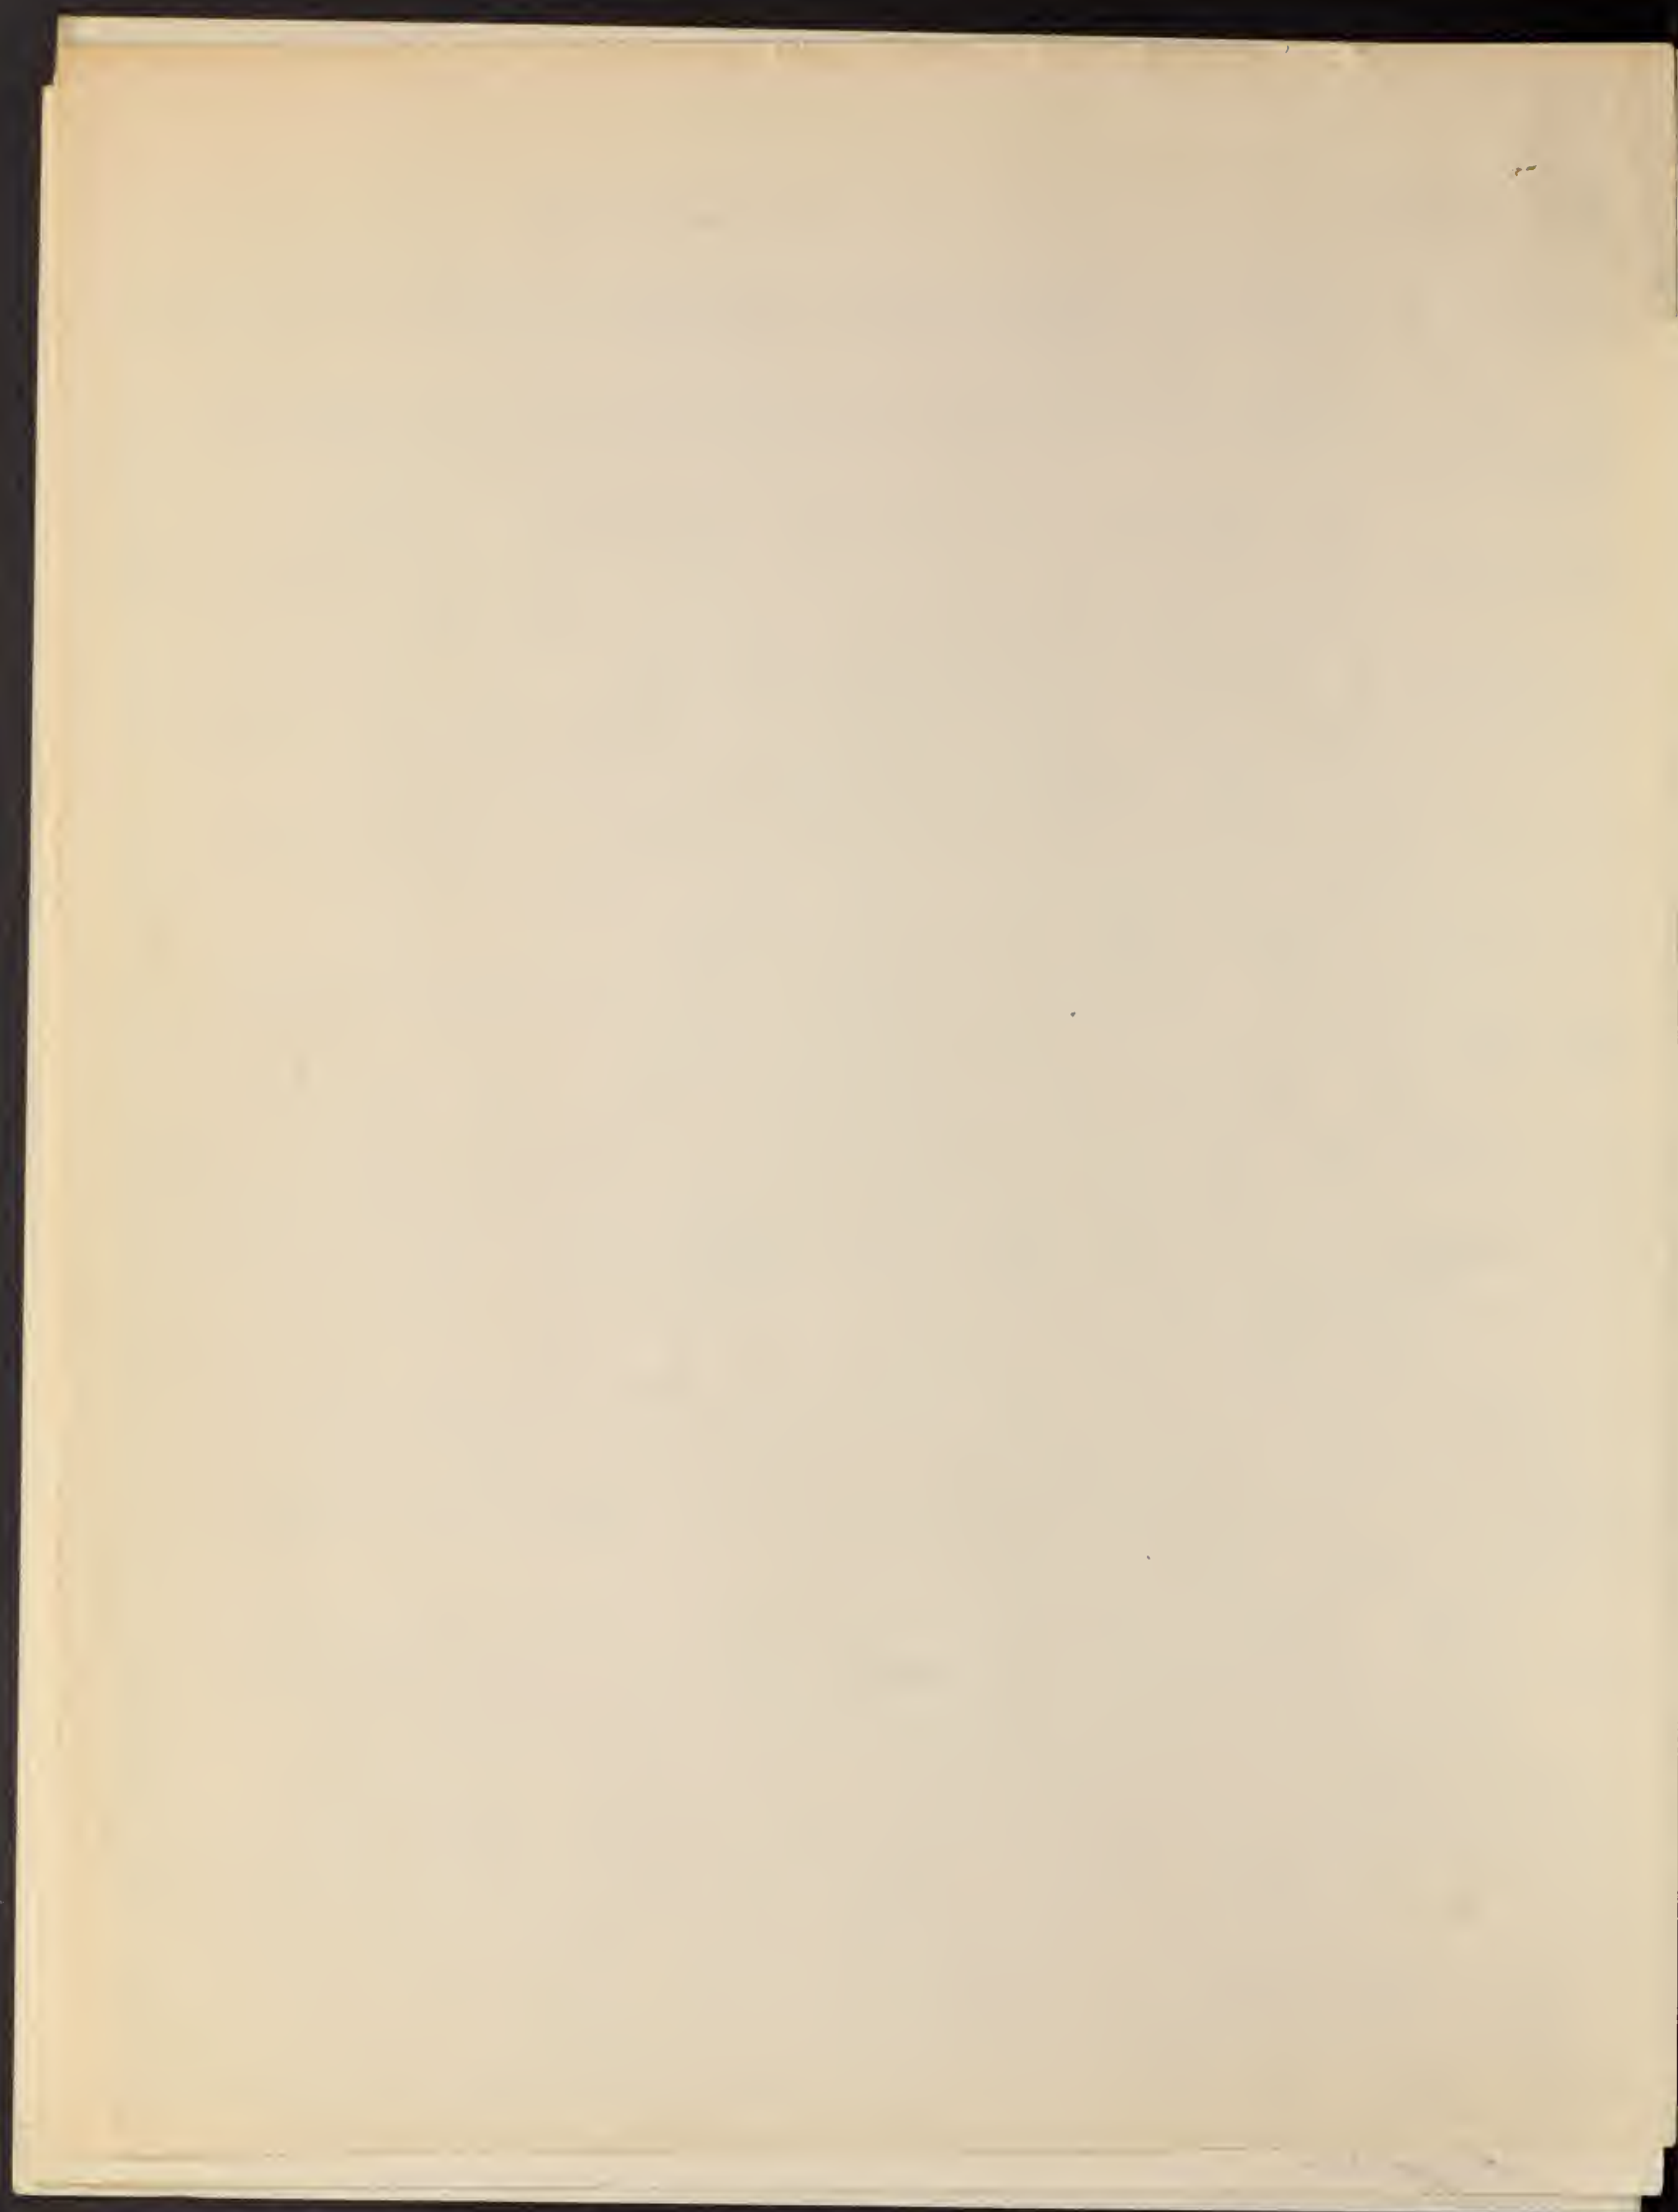

I am after a Minard Simmons of Ramoth Imp Northumberland or wherever it is - and got all messed up on the Ernestown families - George Simmons & Polly Gardiner of course are the grandparents of Sir Gilbert Parker, My mother was a girl in Camden East where Joseph Parker and his wife (Sophia?) lived there - Gilbert was a clerk in the local store. Thereby hangs a tale!

I have written Mrs Annean Wrightman of Cornwall on the Losee line - she is Sister of Wm L. of Ottawa. This family will yield yet!

Major Dupré of the Anglican Synod Kingston has the Langham records at the Synod office & the book Canon Jarvis mentions which was not published. He has Napier records up to 1936 from 1836. He will let you see them if you bring a credential letter from Anglican Clergyman or some such authority. Bishop Lyons of Kingston no doubt would be friendly. Major Dupré has his family from 1680 complete which should be the entire.

How about copying the records which were not printed in Vol 1 etc. You did not give any extracts from the above?

I will mark on Rowe but have no link with Denison Falls yet - well in my staff - 105 of them and some will be from there sure.
Best ever

Dear Doctor :

As a correspondent I must say you are somewhat coy, but I suppose one must put the ills of others ahead of personal inclinations.

I hoped for comment on the notes I sent trusting that I had not repeated too much what you might already have on file.

However I have been inquiring into the Campbell line which circles about Alexander Campbell of Adolphustown. The data in "Pioneers on Board" appendix to Report Bureau of Industries, on Ont^y 1897, in W.S. Kerrington's work and others leaves much to be done. I have however dug up several descendants of such age they are great grandchildren of the Alexander without closing in upon the exact connection.

This covers Grants, Radents, Radenbushs, Vallaux, Davis, Millers (the one from Bath to his Son Rev Gilbert Miller), etc. The Methodist Book Room or Ryerson Press, has the data you once said was in Wpg.

Have you any Simmons records which cover a Minard Simmons b. 2/17/1817 C.W. Dist. Newcastle. Sup. Crimale, m. Oct 25 1838 Sarah Ann Kennedy. In birth issue Lyman R, Clarissa Jane, George, Mary Eliza.

This needs contact with the Ernestown Simons but so far it has eluded me. I need it for W.K. data on a new member I had lined up.

The authorities consulted mention a Simon Simmons and a John of Poughkeepsie in Gardiner but nothing.

to make the line flow.

By the way how does the Simmons in George and Polly Gardiner reach Sir Gilbert Packer. My mother was born in Camden East and remembers the connection but not in detail.

Mr Hutchinson here is a Rancier fan and he had got into MacGillivray and Babcock in origins from the Bath records but is groping now like the rest of us.

Don't forget the Hartford Times, Hartford Conn for enquiries - it is very good tho you must subscribe apparently $50 to get them in.

I am after Osborne now but so far have made poor progress.

My Ann Reue is 1781 m. Cornelius Vallan Half Bay, Ont has been a failure - so far. The only Reue I have in mind came from Dutchess Co N.Y. and might have been a brother - he got into Sephardburg and leaves me in doubt.

Aylemerthaf Madac Ont gave me the following:
from Elson H. Conklin 1708 Madison Ave Grand Rapids Mich - N.Y.G. & B.R. Vol 60 p. 269-270-271.

Daniel Graser m. Apr 2, 1760-1768 Sarah Conklin he b. 1735-40 - d. 1791 Ernestown - lived in Phila, Jefferson Co, near Watertown N.Y. etc his children Andrew Graser b. Oct 21 1769; Daniel Graser Jr m. Sarah Sleuten b. at Schuylkill Dutch Church N.Y.

425 Simcoe St. North,
Oshawa, Ontario,
February 2nd, 1939.

Dr. Burleigh,
BATH, Ontario.

Dear Doctor:

I have been trying to help Mrs. Ilo M. Craig, Box 22, Cape Vincent, N.Y., on the antecedents of Mrs. Mary B. Laird nee Baker, widow of Robert Laird, whom she married February 28th, 1867 in Picton, Ontario.

Mrs. Laird, was born in Fredericksburg, January 13th, 1837, and her advanced age has apparently taken her past recollections of family connections. She left Fredericksburg at age of 20 years.

Mrs. Craig says Mrs. Ray Perry and Mrs. J.H. Brandon of Napanee claim to be grand-nieces, but have no data to offer.

I gave the Baker entries of the old Frederickburg Church (Vol. 6, O.H.S.) and from the Parish Register, Kingston by Prof. Young.

Can you offer any assistance?

Mrs. Livesay whose husband will resume editorship of the Canadian Press in June, says you are a man of great silence! I can only say "me too".

I have had great satisfaction from the Hackinsack church records I bought. The Huguenot families and others have much of their early records in these two books i.e. -- Ackerman, Allen, Anderson, Applebee, Ashley, Ayers, Bakker, Baldwin, Banta, Bartholf, Beck, Beer, Bell, Benson, Berdan, Berrie, Bogert, Bongard, Campbell, Conklin, Christie, Clark, Cole, Cooper (Kuyper) Cromwell, Day, DeBaan (Bowen?) DeGroot, Delameter, DeMaree (Demorest) Edwards, Frasher (Feschem, Vasie), Fralick, Herring, Hardy, Helm, Kelly, Kip, Lozier, Valteau, Mabie, Meyer, Miller, Moor, Nagel, Nicoll, Outwater, Peck, Perry, Persel (Pearsall) Pietersen, Post, Quackenbush, Retan (Rutan) Romeyn, Simmons, Slot(Sloat, Slote) Smith, Snyder, Spier, Storm, Stout, Tallman, Terhune, Tours, Folke, VanBlaricomb, VanBuren, VanderBeck, Vander Linde, Vander Voort, VanHooren, Vrooman, Waldron, Wannemaker, Westervelt, Williams, Winter, Young, Zabriskie, etc., 386 pagea each.

If there are any references you need, just say so and I will ferret them out.

I have the key to Valteau, Zabriskie, Benson, Lozier, but have stalled on Bogert. This book makes Bongard the same name. I fell for Jacobus not realizing it is "James" and Thennis or Tennnis is "Anthony" and so forth. I am trying the "Boston Transcript on Osborne just now.

I hope you can offer something on Baker for this correspondent, it would be nice to help when the ancestor is still living, one hundred and two, needs prompt action. How about it!

Cordially yours,

D.A. Valteau
s.

P.S. It will soon be time for my correspondent to give me the 3,000 Valteau names I told you about, from San Salvador -- watch the family tree shake as this is separate from our published one!

Dear Doctor:

Silence seems to be one of the things you have learned to practice. It reminds me of Dr. Grant Bird here who has 'nt spoke except for the call made for nearly a year to protest an operation down in his throat by the Mayo Bros. We try to make him say "grace" at the table but he just grins (not really) and you have no more effective defense against the Generalist. Mrs. Loring has given up. She thinks she scared you! Perhaps she did.

I have missed your rather wonderful letters and I have been for a while since last hearing from you.

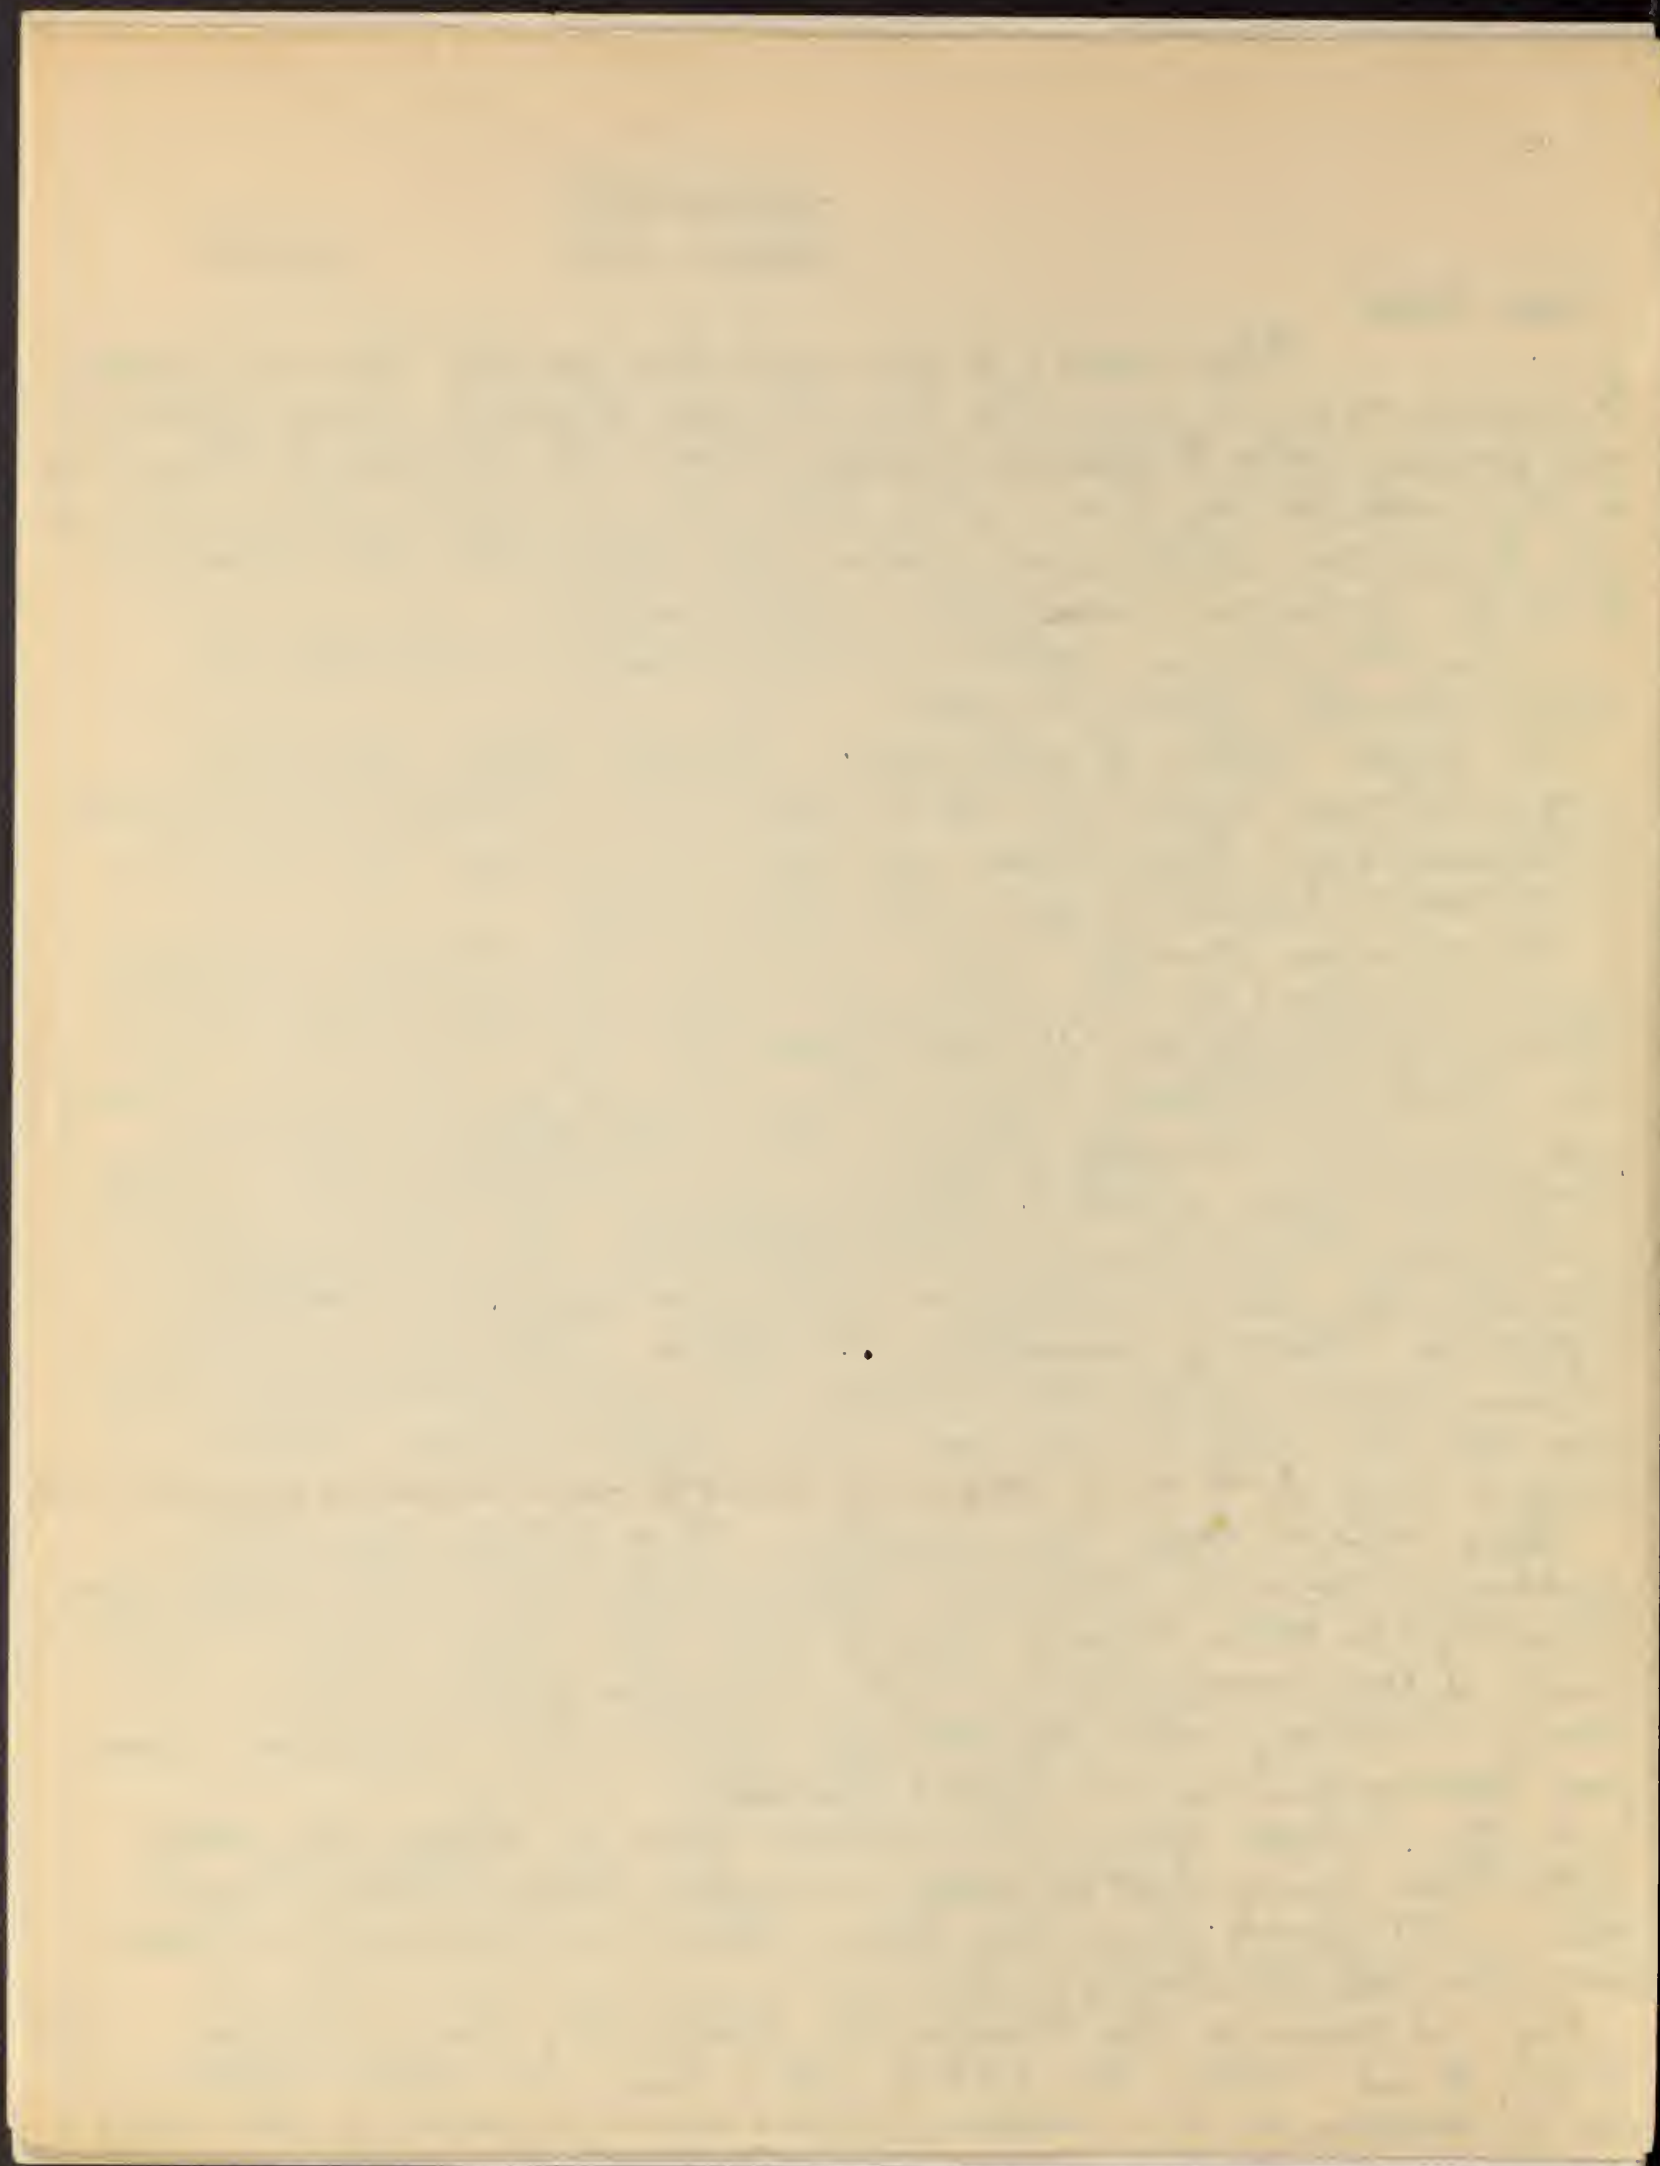

The "Lazies" yielded to fate and a Theodore Lazier who was the Bergen Historical Society is late on the family - I bought the Hachensack & Schwaldbach Church records and went on a "binge" like yours and the relatives. You have not given me the life on this.

My ancestors Jannetje Larive turned out to be dau of Hildebrand Lazier & Christiana de Boen (Boen) and before that of Christian de Boen & Jansen Quire (Quire); Hildebrand was son of Michael Lazier & Anna Trinke Slat (Slat); Michael Lazier was son of Francis Lazier & Jannetje (Hildebrand) Petersen. He is 1790 Dieppe, France, the son of Michael & Jannetje. I note the de Boen family were connected with the de Boen or de Boen or de Boen before coming to Hachensack. The de Boen were connected with the Laziers in Hachensack. I suspect de Boen might be the Boen of Eindhoven & Nijmegen! I got some Condon & traces date for Aylsworths Madec. He has the Aylsworth Book. He says A.B. Perry Brig. Gen. of 1860. He has quite a line on Condon & I suppose Perry. By the way the College in Weymouth has not the Rose record holder they suggest the one in Dorset.

Going back to Lazier then ancestors in P.E.I. Michael was son of Jacobus a brother of Hildebrand. My ancestor married his wife a widow Christy Condon when 20 yrs of age, she died 1836 owned a large brick house in Pictou. I have awakened to be Dutch in Jacobus = James and Junius = Anthony which are not self-evident. The Hachensack records give tables of these names & English equivalent.

A Mrs E Taylor dau of Mrs. Vercheres Grass of Buffalo has asked for the Grass family. I have put together Herveyton, Pioneers Bopff & Caniff plus a UK family from Lewis Grass & made an account of it for her. This is better than nothing for her.

My 3rd Cousin in San Salvador Ca. wrote to my uncle in Chicago saying he had Tallean been back to rap 5 wars - a Cornette Captain - this is something as it is different from ours. I am waiting to hear more!

You can imagine the impatience with which I await his reply.
I am carrying on a lively corresp. with my great great aunt Rebecca Woods McKim Vallan of Moose Range Sask who is 92! She is as bright as a new dollar and took up Latin as a hobby when 91. She takes my problems & practices with wide open - for she knew the old books - she was a school teacher at Selby for some years & the wife of my grandfather's brother William Vallan. I must say I was startled to run across Mr. J. E.
Jandson Oakland Vallan is C.E.T. ^{M.L.A.} for that area in Sask which is not so hot!

Did you ever get into the Campbell line? The Archibald & Alexander Campbell descendants? I would like to catch a ride on this - a Mary Vallan married with Campbell of Adolphustown bro of Alex who built the Campbell house in Repulse Bay - I don't know the "before & after" very well. Elizabeth C. married Hildebrand Vallan, my ancestor Peter's elder son.

I wrote Ottawa & specifically referred to Haldimand papers with result I got an entirely new bundle up on the Vallan (Peter) & references to petitions etc. (They say you can keep this up getting a new one every time!)

They gave me references to names which are new to me & which which I had never heard of them it:

"In the Military series, ^(Haldimand Papers) the names of the following "Vallans" are mentioned: Loyal American Regiment. David 1779-1783.
Peter 1779-80.
Theodore 1777-83.
Thomas 1779.
Bah!

The Peter might be my ancestor - the others are mysterious for the Theodore I am aware of "New Jersey Volunteers" - Wm S Stryker 1887
pg. 21. quotes Gaines Register 1782 "New J. Vol. 15th Batty Quarter Master - Theodore Vallan - was quarter master after death of Waddington 1782."
David in my records was in a New Jersey Reg. at One, patrolled by Gen Carlton - Meth. Minister at Albany N.Y. with Robert Green 1792 - dismissed for breach of discipline 1794. Mentioned in Rye, Westchester Co NY 1787.

We have no Thomas at all!

Have you anything to suggest. I think if it is an American ^{Soldier} One can get a complete outline - even to who got the last pension - But our records at Ottawa are not quite so good.

Do you know anything about this Loyal Amer Regiment - is it the same as Van Alstyne's when he settled the Adolphustown Dwp - Peter was with him as Lieut. - ?

If you ever look over Dr. Youngs Register of the Church in Kingston note the "Mama Vilow" in there as wit. & sponsor. I wonder if one could turn this one down in the Graveyards in Kingston? The name looks like mine but unless she is a "Polly" who was a dau of Catherine Le Millie by her first husband and also a question I have nothing on her.

This Genealogical bug must be a "Shep" the way it crawls on!

I suppose if you have cut out correspondents my questions will not even bounce - but take some time off one of these days & drop us a line

Till then

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year
Cordially yours

David A. Vallan

Mrs. Lindsay says we can get plenty data on Wm Losee (Rev) in Methodist Book Room. Los. but will need to wait for a visit.

I have plenty of data from my Soc. E. Skeneason of San Diego. She sent me the last book & I think one to Mrs. Gutzet.

Mrs. Skeneason was a dau of Minerva Davy & Chas Delater Fairfield & he was son of Henry J & "Betty" Losee dau of Joseph Losee. She is about 70 and writes marvellous letters - lots of Davy, Ham etc remembrances of the old days. She has the "So & So" on the Davy family also - she calls a spade a spade! The Perry end has no secrets from her letter - she comes from the Peter Perry who came up to Whitby & built the old Castle and there. John D. Perry's widow still lives in Whitby & has a "Joshua Reynolds" hanging in her l. room so Mrs. Skeneason says! John D. Perry was Supt of Welland Canal & son of Peter the old m. l. A. for L & A Ont & York respectively & founder of Whitby & Port Perry.

Dear Doctor Burleigh:

I appreciate that a Doctor is busy and while it may be hard on John Citizen it helps him when he needs it the most. I am Parts Manager for General Motors and we are putting through some alterations and system changes now which are bothering me some so that When you say you are busy I echo 'them sentiments'

By the way I note that lawyer Herrington mentions Burleighs in Amherst Island or maybe it is in the History of Ontario?

I am sorry that I was ambiguous but it is a failing of genealogistically inclined people as I also have complained of others.

As far as Mrs Gutzeit is concerned she gave me the reference to Fairfields which led me to Louise Fairfield of Kingston and thus to the Henry Fairfield who married Betty Fairfield nee Elizabeth Losee. As her daughter Merey Jane married Geo Stevenson and her brother Chas Delates Fairfield married Minerva Davy and their daughter Dolly married Wm a brother of George and these two men were sons of the Hon. John Stevenson of Napanee and of Kingston, that Losee connection need not put anyone to shame. My mother tells me that I will keep on digging until I will get a nose full but a dog or even a pig for all that can still take it. I have a hunch that the dear people of those days looked askance on hotel keepers and my investigations show that they made money at this especially the Losees and all their connections. I am Anglican and the Methodist foot was left with the old Vallexaux although in the beginning they were Tories and no doubt of the Established Church from the Huguenot Church in New York and New Rochelle. Their records are in Volume 1 of the Huguenot Society of America. Personally I enjoy finding a bit of a rascal and I suspect that my great grandfather David was a wee bit of the bon vivant however his business was lumber under the name of Downey, Pope and Andrews, in Belleville in the 'seventies' he lost his money in wheat margins and in the bust up in Chicago of those days. His boats traded into Oswego in those days and his steamers "Oswego Belle" and "Kincardine" were well known in the good old days.

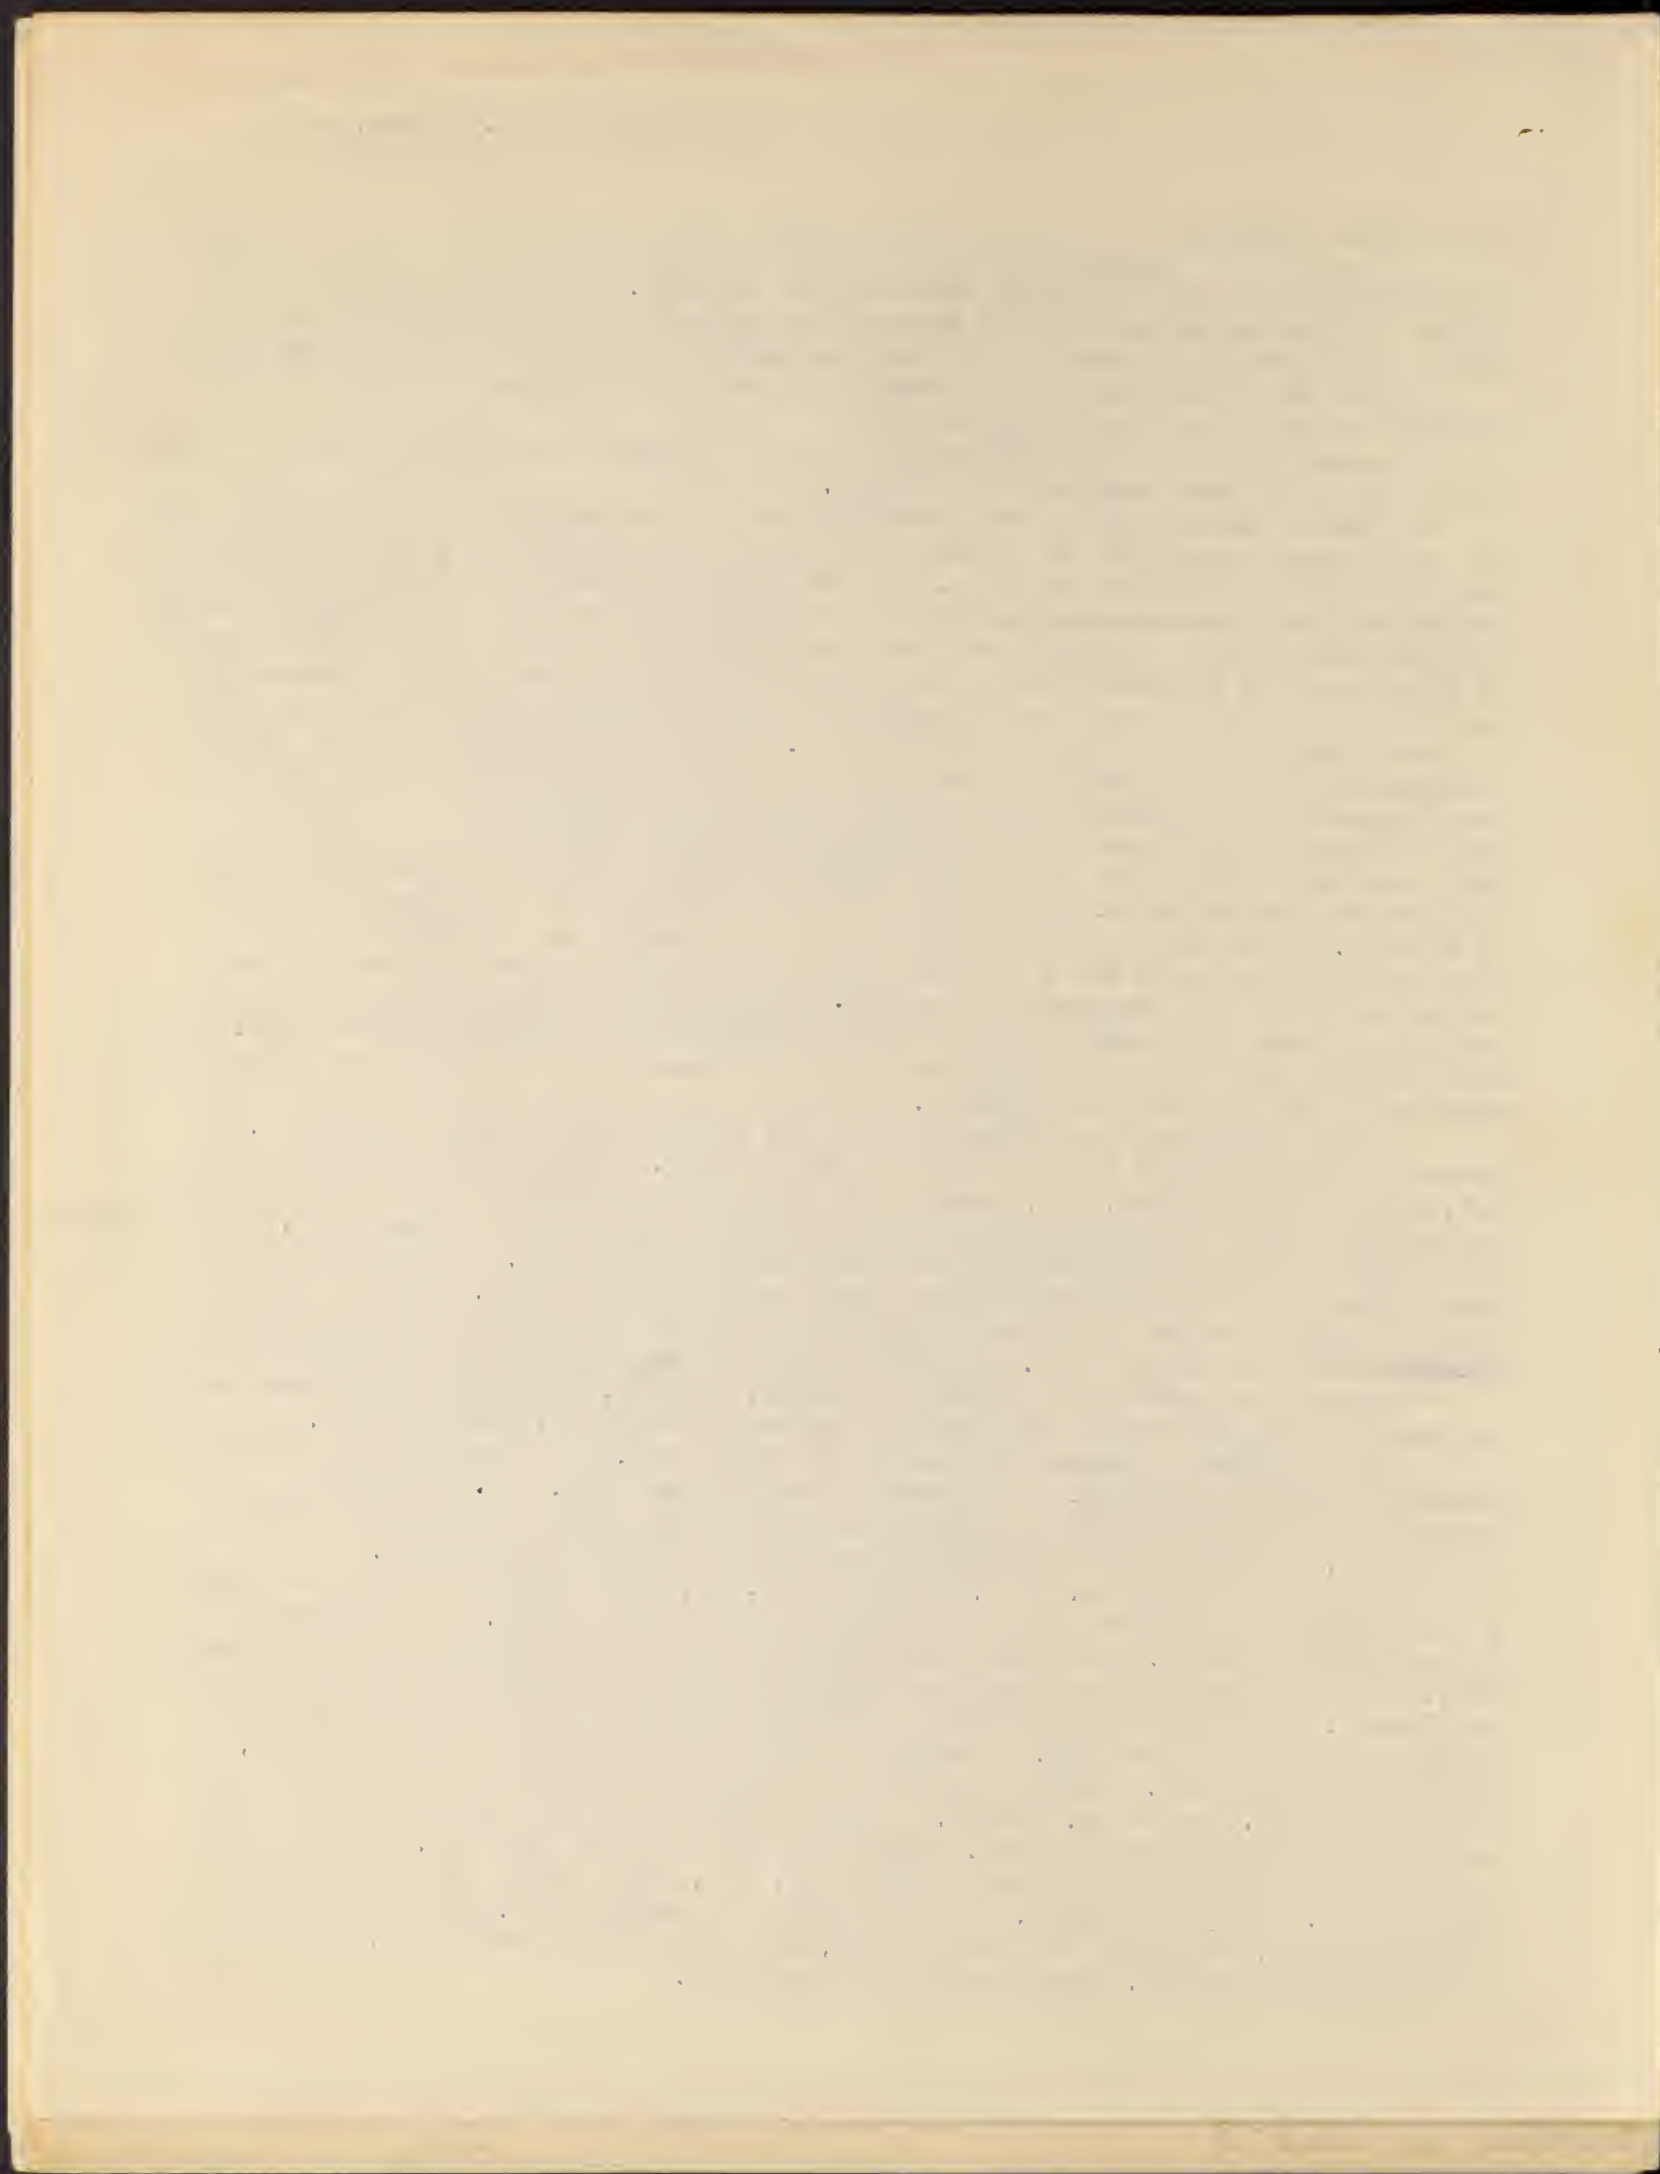

I know Mrs Gutzeit and sometimes see her at the UEL meetings in Toronto. I wonder if the following is the trail she has in mind. I quote from a letter from J.N.A. Dulmage of Milford, Ont, dated April 22nd 1934 answering a Losee question as follows "there was a Dorland Losee married a Sarah Dulmage some 85 years ago. He was from Bath district and ran a HOTEL in that town about 80 years ago. He then moved to Green Point in our county and he died from a cancer on the face. He had seven or eight children, one of the oldest girls lives in Napanee and two in Picton, Tom in Rochester and one in the west. I have no further help for you on the Losee family.

" There is no doubt that Dulmage, Dulmudge, Delmage, Dolmage are the same people as there is that difference with some of my second cousins". End of quote.

If the marriage records of the Losees are in Vol. 1 of the Ontario Historical Society's book I have them, if otherwise I would like them. By the way this is a reprint it is available for $2 only direct from their office in the Normal Bldg in Toronto. It was a 1899 issue but the demand forced an other issue.

Now for your queries. J.E. Farewell, LLB. KC. was a judge in Whitby and wrote a book "County of Ontario, Early Settlement" published in 1907. I ran across it in our Public Library. Here are the notes I made" see Canada Wst by Wm Henry Smith 1851. Ont. Peel and Simcoe deeds registered in Toronto in early days and earlier at Windsor. Some were transferred to Detroit where they took in part of the old province lost to the British. Trafalgar Castle built by sheriff N.G. Reynolds, now Whitby Ladies College. Markham and west of Pickering settled by Dutch -Germans from Penn. 1792., under Mr. Berzey. Brown quakers settled near Pickering. 1st settler in Pickering was Wm Peak. Terwilliger etc, was de Williger. Joseph Losee kept store in Whitby 1818, came from Wicklow, Ont., Ezra Annes (Annis) settled in Whitby 1818. Clerk for Losie. Wm Young settled there in 1833. Peter Perry came to Whitby in 1836, ex member for Hastings Co, rep, for South Ontario Co., Whitby once called Perry's Corners. Capt Rowe there same time.

John C Campbell ex member from Lennox & Addington, was J.P. his brothers there were Robert C, J.P. in merchantile business, milling with brother John, Aron C. J.P. Calvin C. J.P., warden 1866, Isaac C. J.P. moved to Middlesex. John & Robt built mill in Brooklin 1840 burnt 1848. B.F.Campbell son of John C. East Whitby, Dr Allison 1843. Twp of Brock, Col. James Vrooman and George V, were early settlers about 1818. Whitby, B.F.Ball first clerk of the Peace 1812. Dr. J.V.Ham. etc...."

I intend to attach copies of the letters you mention and they will answer the questions. However to be sure I will explain, Joseph was the great grandfather of Miss Young as her grandmother Julia Losee was a daughter by his second wife Deborah Ellsworth. Mr Will Losee is Anne Young's second cousin as his father was her mother's uncle. She does not mention her name but Will says it is Jerusha and a sister of his father Baleman Losse who was born in Whitby Aug 19 1823.

Miss Young and Mr Losee differ here he says Rev Wm Losee was his grand uncle and thus brother of Joseph Losee who settled in Wicklow and Whitby and who was the boy ten years old at the time of the Rebellion in Oswego and whose parents names are yet to be determined....Miss young say Rev Wm was a cousin to old Joseph. As she is wrong in saying Mr Losee is a second cousin and because he is Vice Pres of the UEL and a research guy I believe him. They are first cousins and her mother was his father's sister, if his remarks are correct. More about this later. The thing that gets me is that her (Anne Young) father was Fred Young son of James C Young who married Jerusha Losee, and whose mother was Susan Clarke wife of Guy Young and whose brother married Jane Andrews sister of David Andrews, the brother being Nelson Clarke. The chap Dulmage quoted elsewhere says Nelson was a nephew of Susan but in any case the families were actually hooked up in this roundabout way even if my Losee search doesn't click.

William, Nathan and Wakeman were brothers of the father of W.E.Losee of Victoria, ie Baleman. I was in error in writing Benjamin, I wouldn't have believed it if my letter wasn't before me.

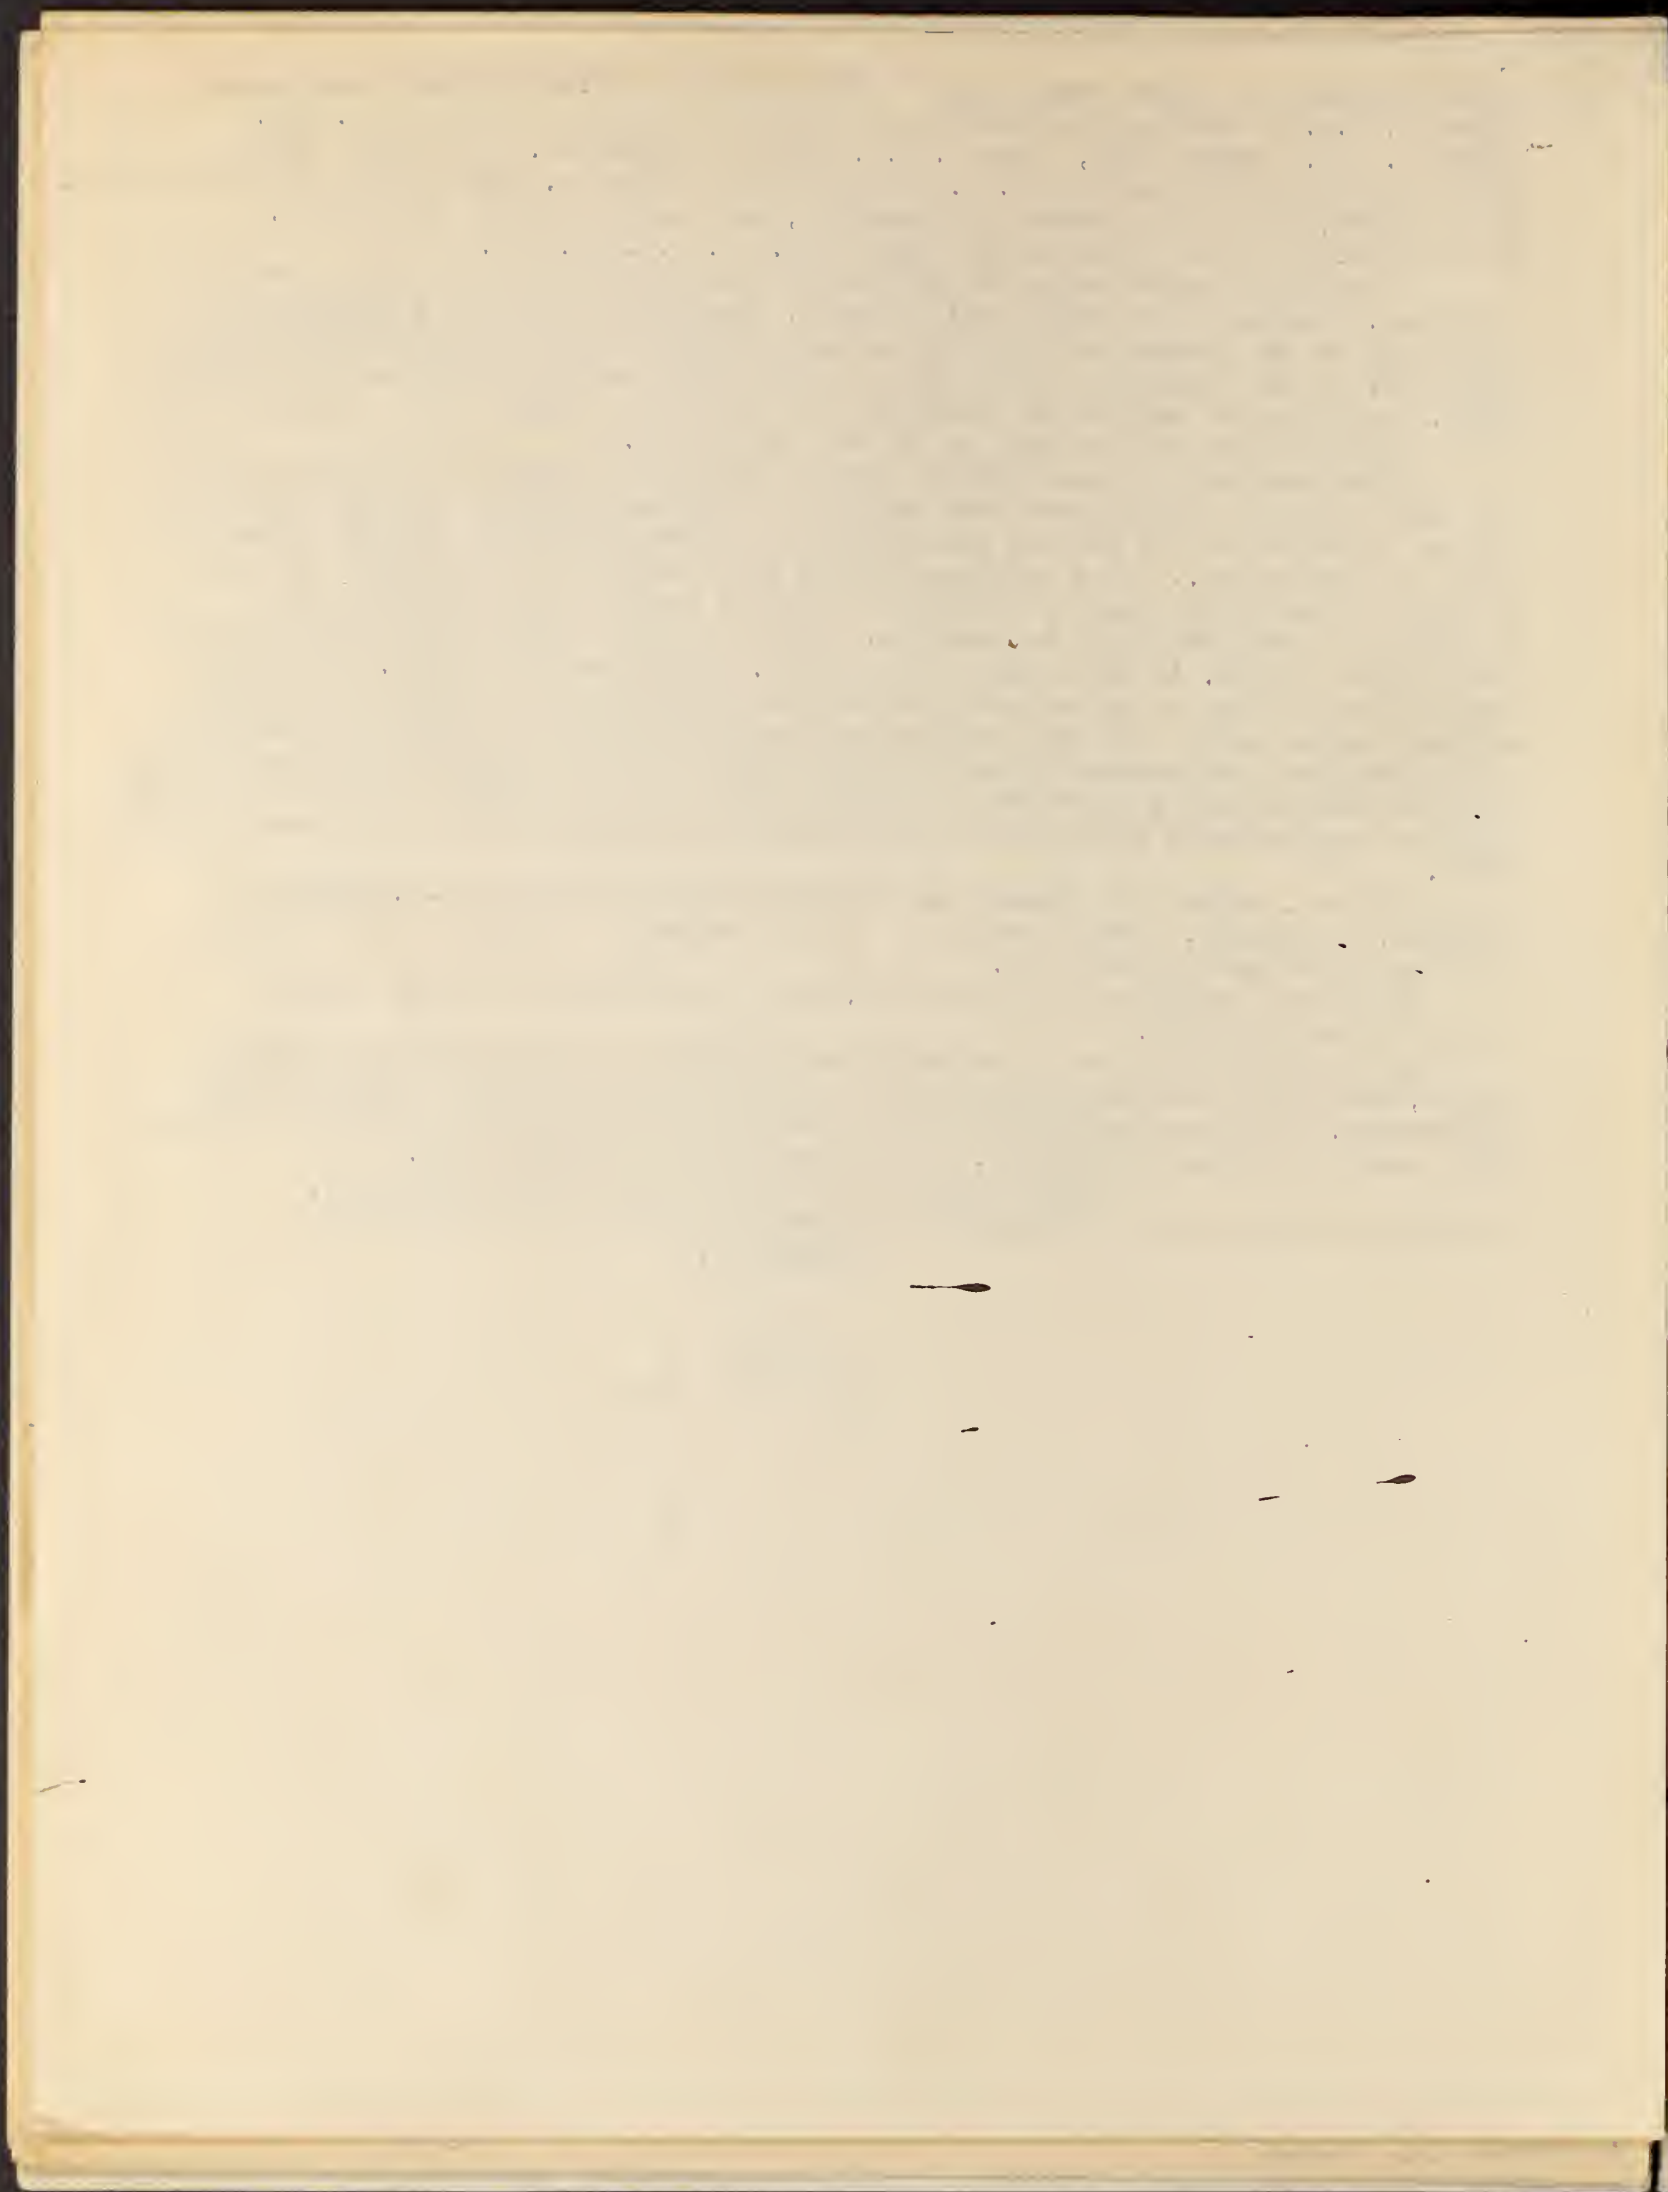

Your other question is who wrote #7, this a continuation of Anne Young's letter of Aug 19th 1938.

By the way James Losee of Weller's Bay according to Miss Young was Joseph's cousin, whereas Wm Losee says "then there was James Losee who with his family lived at Consecon. They were Loyalists also and came from around New York during the century 1600, were all of the same stock". This was probably the century 1700.

This is a long letter and thank you for your reply, you did not mention as to the Burleys I quoted from Vol 6 of the OHS book?

cordially,

Lat

Dear Doctor :

I have missed hearing from you, but hope this means you have been over to Albany N.Y. with success in the research.

I have made some progress in connection with Losee and Washburn of course these are not connected.

Wm. Losee of Ottawa gave me a tip on a W.E. Losee 1031 Richmond Ave Victoria, B.C. who gave me the following;

2 "The Losee's came from Poughkeepsie N.Y. where they had a fine residence at the close of the rebellion in 1776. At that time Joseph Losee was under 10 years of age. They travelled by pack-train or horses to Oswego and Joseph had to walk the same as the grown men. Joseph was allowed to rest and recover from the trip at Oswego, then they continued the trip by barge 3 along the shore to Stoney Point, then across to P.E. County and around the east side to Adolphustown, from whence they scattered some settling at Salmon Point.

Joseph Losee opened a store at Wicklow (near Brighton) and when the Kingston road was being build he secured the sub-contract and when he saw a likely piece of land he acquired it. He did this where Whitby now stands and the town was laid out on his farm. He raised his family at this point and after that returned to Wicklow where his wealth led to his destruction and he died an untimely end.

"I know nothing about his family except that his sword is in the Masonic Lodge at Whitby. Joseph's ledger was sent out to me after my father's death and it is now in the Provincial Archives in B.C. It is a wonderful book 12"x 16" x 2 1/2" bound with calf skin, the capital letters about an inch high the others a good half inch, and all the figures are in £, s, and d. It cost £15 s.

"My father Benjamin Losee was born in Whitby Aug 19 1823. Then there was ~~him~~ Losee the first ~~literat~~ Minister, he rode a white horse and included in his fold all the area from Kingston to Niagara Falls, making two trips a year. He got mixed up in a love affair and returned to Poughkeepsie. I had three uncles my father's brothers, William, Nathan and Wakeman, but their children are all passed a way. My sister Flora Pererett still living in Regina, aged 81, Robert aged 79 in Spokane, Wash, and self aged 78 last March 1938.

"I am Vice-Pres of the UEL society here.

Note: Dorland Losee lived in Adolphustown in 1811 to 1814 having a family of seven, no further reference in the Town Records. Appendix, O.B. I. Rpt, 1897.

JE Farewell, LLB. KC Whitby 1907 says "Losie kept store here in 1818 and Ezra Annes settled here in 1818 and clerked for Losie. Losee and Losie came from the custom of not dotting the "i".

who is 1. → "His letter July 27th 1938, says, James Losie lived at Consecon, P.E.Co, he was of the same stock. Rev Wm Losee was my great uncle or a brother of Joseph my great-grandfather. Two sons of Nathan Losee were in Witchitaw, Kansas, I suggest you contact Miss Annie Young of Colborne whose mother was my father's sister Jerusha Losee.

Aug, 19;38 Miss Young says" My mother used to say that great grandfather put the "I" in his name to distinguish him from a cousin of the same name. The Losee's were originally Huguenots from France and came to Canada from Poughkeepsie N.Y. Prov. A cousin of Great grandfather's James lived at Weller's Bay, P.E.Co. Grandfather Young of EastLake married a Clarke, my father was James C.Young. I never heard of Dorland Losee. Rev Wm Losee was great grandfather's cousin and came here with Barbara Heck. The man who took up 600 Acres in Northumberland Co, was my Great Grandfather. His first wife was his cousin Charity Losee. They ran away and were married in the States as their family at Poughkeepsie were against their union. He kept a store at Wicklow and open house and died there in his declining years. His two children, ^{one} Maria Losee married an architect Ezra Annes of Whitby. Their children were F.Howard Annes and a sister Maud. My grandmother was a daughter by his ^{Joseph's} second wife Deborah Ellsworth. Great Grandmother Losee died with us and I will let you see her papers if you call. Great Grandfather was in the Northumberland Regiment and fought in the war of 1812.

"The Losee family still lived in Poughkeepsie untill a few years ago when the last one Col, Losee died. I happened to know a lady born here whose husband a banker in that place settled the estate. I had quite an interest in it at one time but nothing ever came of it. "

Going back to Wm Losee of Ottawa he says June 28th, "My father's father died when my father was four years old and he knew practically nothing about his ancestors. He had two brothers Schuyler and John. The former died in Chicago in 1815 the latter some years earlier in Portsmouth. Schuyler let a daughter Gertrude, John left Emma and Isabeella. They in turn have had no issue. On May 29th placed a tablet in the Church at Colling's Bay in memory of my father."

Note; His father Joseph was a son of James Losee who married Hannah Grass who on his death married Lawrence Herchamer. I met a Mr. Grass yesterday who has a farm near Columbus an original grant to Capt ^{Grass} of Kingston but who has never kept in touch with his relations down there.

There is too much of the Washburn data to write about here, sufficient to say I copied the Bible entries of old Ebenezer and will repeat them to you. Mrs Wm Meritt of this city is working on this genealogy and intends to publish it. My grandmother's sister Margaret Lawrence of Centerville married a Simon Washburn who died in California leaving a son Simon. Her husband's father was a schoolteacher in Camden East years ago and a daughter Abergail went to stay with the Rev MacDowall's at Bath and later went to Picton and a few years ago was still living.

Would appreciate any comment or suggestion on my Losee hunt, I feel like a snake must who makes several circles over his own body and cant tell on which end is the tail or for that matter the head!

Perhaps the Andrews hunt you are upon will cross my search yet.

Kindest regards,

Sincerely,

W. I. L.

Have you anything on the Rowe family? My

⑤ If you have not seen the "Romance of the Palatine Millers"
by Rev W. Bowman Tucker, Montreal, 1929 - Lantham Press.
You have missed an essay of Emerson's references - Switzer, Empey, & W. Lathrop - detailed to the 11th &
12th generation! What a job -
I would like to have the book just to admire it. The Palatine History is fine & detailed.

Did Mrs Lowry of Calif.
send you anything on Perry, Washington or Davy? I got her data on Perry. Mrs Merritt got it on Washington - and I am after the Davy data which one of the ilk has in Toronto - One of them told said they would skin a flea!

There is a Thompson one in the library in Toronto from that district which is good too.
I could never approach either.

Will 1832 is the Rev Wm Losee or

P.S.

6. O.H.S. Vol XIX Blue Church Burying

I have the data on Lieut Alex

I did not check Rev Tucker's

Dear Dr. Burleigh: One of our boys L. Hagelman has spoken to me regarding your fund of information on the W.E.L. families. While I have considerable data it is all based on Canadian references whereas believe your data is based on Albany records. If you would care to drop me a line would be interested in your notes on the Vallan Family. For instance he descend from Peter Vallan & Jannetje Gabriëlle (Lager) and then issue Hildebrand, Cornelius & Mary (Senson) but I am not sure of Peter's parents names or where Jannetje ties in with the Jacob Loziers who settled in Canada. Cornelius married Ann Rowe, ^{no other record of her.} Joseph Losce had issue Elizabeth, Catharine, James, etc and Elizabeth married Henry Fairfield. Joseph apparently married a Mrs Andrews who had three children David, Mary (Hooper), Jane (Clark) and brought them to Losces ^{but not} person Phila Pa in their childhood. Edward b. 1870 Mary b. 1870. Jane? Joseph probably was husband no. 2. Elizabeth Losce married Henry Fairfield and then were six children. I am trying 3 to find out about the Andrew family. Mr Herrington's book mentions a Mrs Rose in the early days in the Tavern as pouring the Cup of Cheer but that is all. Have you run into anything on these people?

Returning to the Vallan, Andrew Zabrickie was in Adolphustown in 1791 but returned to the States. He was Jenny Vallan's son by her first marriage. You may have run into his name in the Albany records.

Did you get anything on John German from Fort Edward & the 3 sons Christopher, Jacob & John?

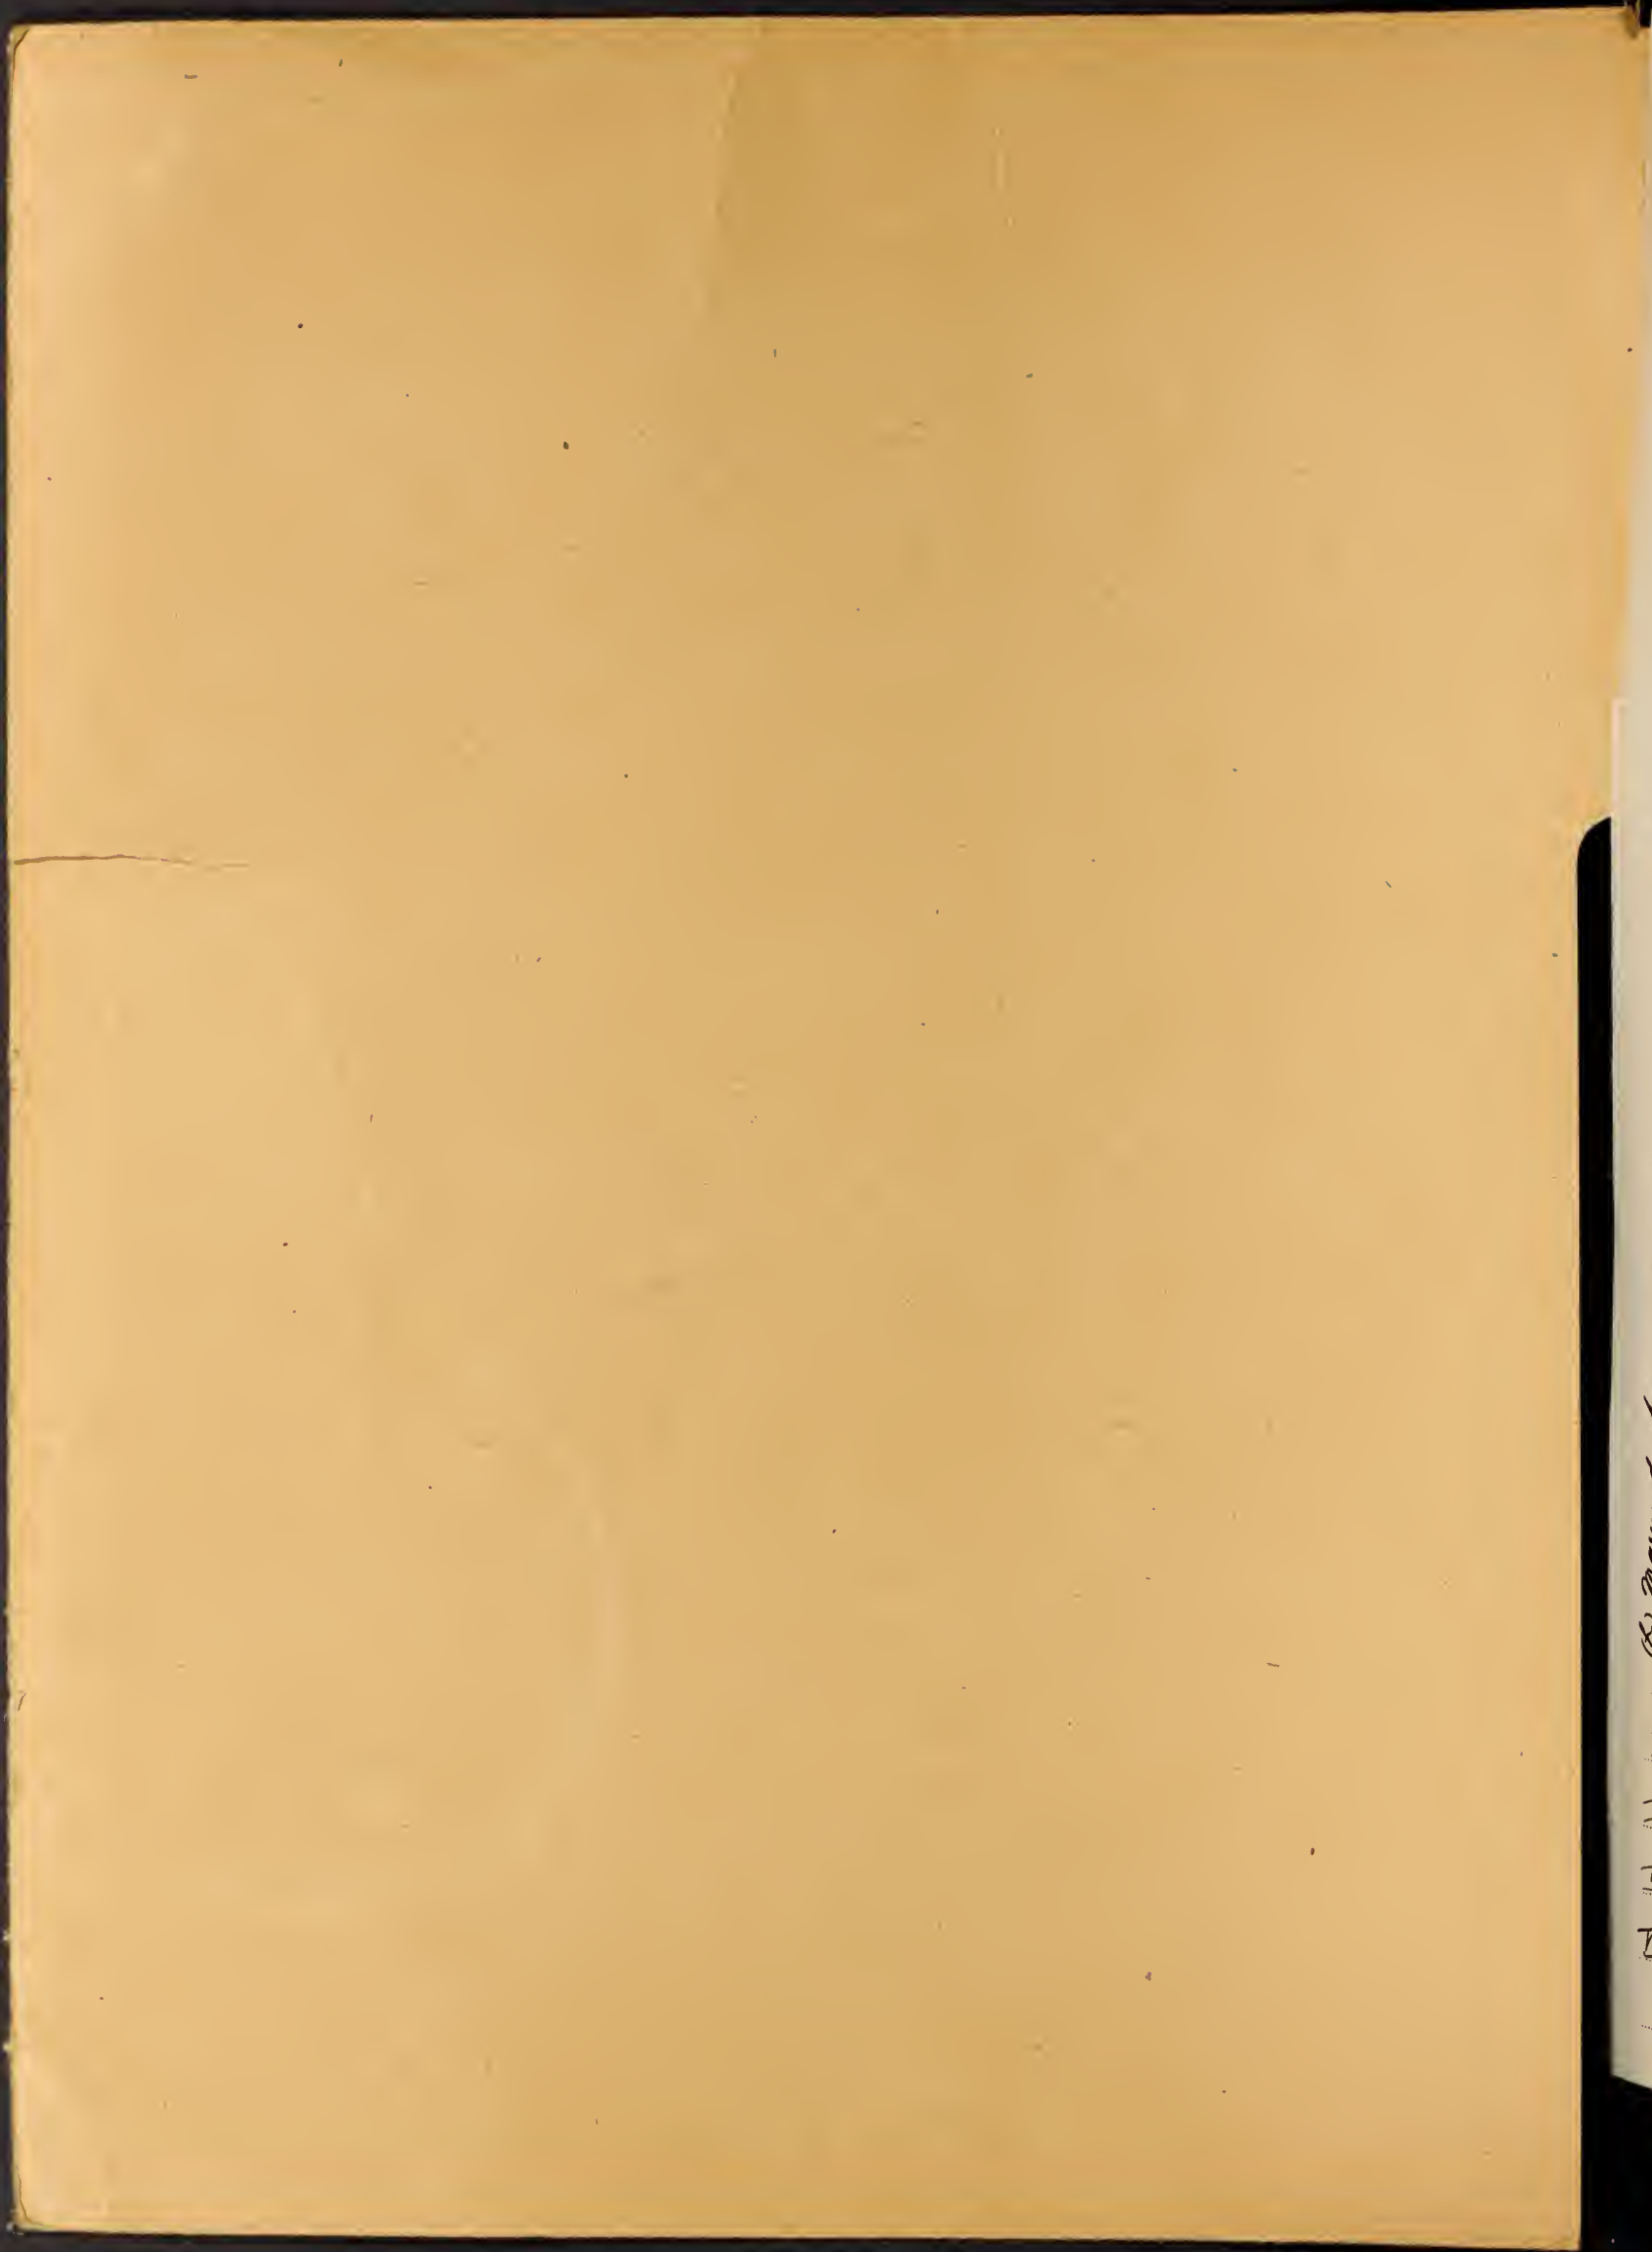

Have you any notes on Randalls, Reynolds & Rundles, Especially Daniel Reynolds mentioned in "Dopt Pioneers" 1904.

Would appreciate very much hearing from you

Very Sincerely

J. A. Vallan
